Sixteenth session

New York, 4 – 14 December 2017

Report of the Bureau on the arrears of States Parties

I. Introduction

1. Pursuant to articles 112, 115 and 117 of the Rome Statute, the expenses of the Court and of the Assembly of States Parties that are provided in the budget considered and decided by the Assembly, shall be provided by, inter alia, contributions made by States Parties, which shall be assessed in accordance with an agreed scale of assessment based on the scale adopted by the United Nations for its regular budget and adjusted in accordance with the principles on which that scale is based.

2. Pursuant to regulation 105.1 of the Financial Regulations and Rules, “assessed contributions and advances shall be considered as due and payable in full within thirty days of the receipt of the communication of the Registrar referred to in regulation 5.5 or as of the first day of the calendar year to which they relate, whichever is the later.” For the purposes of this report, lack of full payment within this timeframe is labeled “outstanding contribution.” Pursuant to the same regulation, “[a]s of 1 January of the following calendar year, the unpaid balance of such contributions and advances shall be considered to be one year in arrears.” Further, as per article 112, paragraph 8 of the Rome Statute, “a State Party which is in arrears in the payment of its financial contributions towards the costs of the Court shall have no vote in the Assembly and in the Bureau if the amount of its arrears equals or exceeds the amount of the contributions due from it for the preceding two full years.”

3. As in previous sessions, at its twelfth and thirteenth sessions, the Assembly of States Parties (“the Assembly”) “emphasize[d] the importance of endowing the Court with the necessary financial resources, and urge[d] all States Parties to the Rome Statute to transfer their assessed contributions in full and by the deadline for contributions or, in the event of pre-existing arrears, immediately, in accordance with article 115 of the Rome Statute, rule 105.1 of the Financial Regulations and Rules, and other relevant decisions taken by the Assembly.”¹

4. At its twelfth session, the Assembly “decide[d] that, with the understanding that the facilitation in the New York Working Group and its report to the Assembly on arrears is biennialized, the Bureau should continue to monitor the status of payments received throughout the financial year of the Court and consider additional measures to promote payments by States Parties, as appropriate, and continue to engage in dialogue with States Parties in arrears”; and “request[ed] the Secretariat to inform States Parties periodically of States that have recovered their voting rights following payment of their arrears”.² The Assembly also took note of the Report of the Bureau on the arrears of States Parties³ and of its recommendations, including “that the topic be considered again in two years with a report to be submitted to the fourteenth session of the Assembly”.⁴ This biennial reporting was done in an effort to contribute to the improvement of the working methods of the Assembly, and to bring additional value to the reports of the committee.

5. At its fourteenth session, the Assembly received a report on the arrears of States Parties,⁵ submitted by the facilitator on the issue of arrears, Mr. Slavomir Kantor (Slovakia).⁶ The Assembly decided “that the Bureau, through the President of the Assembly, the coordinator of the Working Group and the focal point, should continue to monitor the status of payments received throughout the financial year of the Court and consider additional measures to promote payments by all States Parties, as appropriate, continue to engage in dialogue with States Parties that have outstanding contributions or are in arrears and report thereon to the Assembly at its fifteenth session.”⁷

6. At its fifteenth session, the Assembly received a report on the arrears of States Parties⁸ submitted by the facilitator on the issue of arrears, Mr. Sebastian Roga (Croatia). The report again noted “the worrisome state of outstanding contributions and arrears”, and that the Assembly “must undertake focused efforts to ensure that no assessed contributions to the Court remain outstanding and ensure that the requests for payment are acted upon by all States Parties”.⁹ The report also noted that it was necessary for the Working Group to take up its biennialized facilitation on the issue of arrears throughout 2017.¹⁰

7. The present report is thus submitted pursuant to the decision of the Assembly at its fifteenth session. The mandate on the issue of arrears was granted to the New York Working Group by the Bureau of the Assembly and Mr. Sebastian Roga (Croatia) was re-appointed as the facilitator on the issue of arrears on 20 February 2017.

8. This report follows the submission of reports from the fourth to fifteenth sessions of the Assembly, and aims to build on their findings and recommendations.¹¹ It should thus be read in conjunction with the said reports, whose recommendations have been endorsed by the Assembly.

9. It must be recalled, that in general, the facilitation on the issue of arrears has a number of objectives:

- (a) To find ways to ensure that no assessed contributions to the Court remain outstanding, by promoting a culture of financial discipline;
- (b) To seek ways of cooperating with States Parties that have not met their financial obligations in order to reverse any outstanding balances;
- (c) To examine what could be done in the cases in which these outstanding contributions amount to arrears under article 112 of the Rome Statute and/or when obligations have not been met due to circumstances beyond the control of the States Parties in question;
- (d) To keep under review the mechanism allowing States Parties to seek exemptions from article 112;¹² and
- (e) To enhance communication among the Assembly, the Court and States Parties in arrears, so as to address the issue of outstanding assessed contributions more effectively.

⁵ ICC-ASP/14/40.

⁶ The report submitted at the fourteenth session addressed, inter alia, the issue of the biennial facilitation. While not recommending that the facilitation be ended or that its biennial schedule be modified, the report noted that “... having considered the level of outstanding contributions remains worrisome... it is considered necessary that a focal point be appointed to assist the Bureau in this task throughout 2016, to keep the Working Groups informed as regularly as possible on the status of contributions, and to ensure that the requests for payment sent by the Court are received and acted upon by all States Parties. A report to the Assembly at its fifteenth session would be deemed necessary to inform the Assembly of the issues and obstacles identified in pursuing the objective of zero arrears.”

¹² Article 112, paragraph 8, of the Rome Statute provides as follows: “A State Party which is in arrears in the payment of its financial contributions towards the costs of the Court shall have no vote in the Assembly and in the Bureau if the amount of its arrears equals or exceeds the amount of the contributions due from it for the preceding two full years. The Assembly may, nevertheless, permit such a State Party to vote in the Assembly and in the Bureau if it is satisfied that the failure to pay is due to conditions beyond the control of the State Party.”

10. At its meetings on 20 February and 5 June 2017 the Bureau was presented with an appeal by the President to States Parties in arrears, and those who had outstanding contributions, to deploy all efforts in order to make their financial contributions to the Court as soon as possible.

II. Status of contributions and arrears

11. As of 31 October 2017, the total outstanding contributions, including for the regular budget, the Working Capital Fund, the Contingency Fund, the Capital Replacement Fund and the host State loan, stood at €32,071,049, a slight decrease on the outstanding amount at the same point in 2016 (€33,864,437).

12. With regard to outstanding contributions, the Committee on Budget and Finance stressed in the report of its twenty-ninth session that “[N]ot meeting obligations in relation to the payment of contributions may seriously jeopardize the daily operations of the Court”, adding that “if contributions remain unpaid at the end of the year, the Court may need to resort to the Working Capital Fund, while its available amount may not be sufficient to cater for liquidity shortfalls”.¹³

13. As of 31 October 2017, 76 States Parties were fully settled, 23 States Parties had outstanding contributions for the 2017 budget, and 25 States Parties were in arrears, 11 of which were ineligible to vote and were required to make a minimum payment in order to avoid the application of article 112, paragraph 8 of the Rome Statute.

III. Consultations and sharing of information

14. As in previous years, information on the status of contributions to the Court was annexed to the reports of the two annual sessions of the Committee on Budget and Finance, which were distributed to States Parties by the Secretariat.

15. The New York Working Group regularly discussed the issue of arrears in its meetings throughout the year.

16. The facilitator held bilateral consultations with various States Parties with outstanding contributions, informing them about the exact amounts and the status of their arrears. While stressing the importance of settlement of assessed outstanding contributions, the facilitator presented States Parties copies of notes verbales and letters sent on the issue of arrears by the Registrar to the States Parties. From April to July 2017, the facilitator met with Permanent Missions to the United Nations of some States Parties with significant outstanding contributions, followed by further demarches and consultations in September and October 2017.

IV. Conclusions and recommendations

17. Bearing in mind the worrisome state of outstanding contributions and arrears, the overall status of contributions should be kept under close observation, and the Assembly should heighten its efforts to ensure financial discipline from all States Parties.

18. Considering that the level of outstanding contributions still remains a cause for concern, the Assembly must again undertake focused efforts to ensure that no assessed contributions to the Court remain outstanding and ensure that the requests for payment are acted upon by all States Parties. It is therefore necessary that the Working Group take up its biennialized facilitation on the issue of arrears throughout 2018, and report thereon to the Assembly at its seventeenth session.

19. The facilitator concludes his inter-sessional work by recommending to the Assembly the inclusion in the omnibus resolution of the paragraphs contained in the annex to the present report.

Annex

Draft text for the omnibus resolution

1. Paragraph 116 of the 2016 omnibus resolution (ICC-ASP/15/Res.5) is maintained:

“Takes note with concern of the report of the facilitator on the arrears of States Parties.”

2. Paragraph 117 of the 2016 omnibus resolution (ICC-ASP/15/Res.5) is maintained:

“Emphasizes the importance of endowing the Court with the necessary financial resources, and urges all States Parties to the Rome Statute to transfer their assessed contributions in full and by the deadline for contributions or, in the event of pre-existing arrears, immediately, in accordance with article 115 of the Rome Statute, rule 105.1 of the Financial Regulations and Rules, and other relevant decisions taken by the Assembly;”

3. The following paragraphs are to be maintained in the Mandates section of the 2017 omnibus resolution:

With regard to the programme budget,

“Decides that the Bureau, through the President of the Assembly, the coordinator of the Working Group and the facilitator, should continue to monitor the status of payments received throughout the financial year of the Court and consider additional measures to promote payments by all States Parties, as appropriate, continue to engage in dialogue with States Parties that have outstanding contributions or are in arrears, and report thereon to the Assembly at its seventeenth session;”

“Requests the Secretariat to inform States Parties periodically of States that have recovered their voting rights following payment of their arrears;”
