The Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties presents its compliments to States Parties and has the honour to refer to the decision of the Bureau of the Assembly of States Parties, taken at its third meeting, on 29 January 2018, regarding the election of members of the Advisory Committee on Nominations, which will take place at the seventeenth session of the Assembly, on the basis of a recommendation of the Bureau.

The Bureau decided to fix the nomination period, which would run for 12 weeks, from 6 June to 28 August 2018 (Central European Time). Nominations received by the Secretariat before or after the nomination period shall not be considered.

Nominating States are requested to include a statement as to how candidates fulfil the criteria established in the terms of reference of the Advisory Committee (annex I).

Article 36, paragraph 4 (c), of the Rome Statute provides as follows:

“(c) The Assembly of States Parties may decide to establish, if appropriate, an Advisory Committee on nominations. In that event, the Committee’s composition and mandate shall be established by the Assembly of States Parties.”

Resolution ICC-ASP/10/Res.5, entitled “Strengthening the International Criminal Court and the Assembly of States Parties” provides as follows:

“19. Welcomes the report, adopted by the Bureau pursuant to paragraph 25 of resolution ICC-ASP/9/Res.3<sup>1</sup>, decides to adopt the recommendations contained therein, and requests the Bureau to start the process of preparing the election, by the Assembly of States Parties, of the members of the Advisory Committee on nominations of judges of the International Criminal Court in accordance with the terms of reference annexed to the report;”

Regarding the composition of the Committee, the terms of reference provide as follows:

“A. Composition

1. The Committee should be composed of nine members, nationals of States Parties, designated by the Assembly of States Parties by consensus on recommendation made by the Bureau of the Assembly also made by consensus, reflecting the principal legal systems of the world and an equitable geographical representation, as well as a fair representation of both genders, based on the number of States Parties to the Rome Statute.
2. Members of the Committee should be drawn from eminent interested and willing persons of a high moral character, who have established competence and experience in criminal or international law.
3. Members of the Committee would not be the representatives of States or other organizations. They would serve in their personal capacity, and would not take instructions from States Parties, States or any other organizations or persons.
4. The Committee will designate a coordinator to chair its meetings and organize its work.”

<sup>1</sup> Report of the Bureau on the establishment of an Advisory Committee on nominations of judges of the International Criminal Court (ICC-ASP/10/36).

In the report of the Advisory Committee on Nominations of Judges on the work of its sixth meeting,<sup>2</sup> the Committee made the following recommendation concerning its future composition:

“The Committee recalled that in accordance with its terms of reference, its members would normally be designated for three year terms, with the possibility of being re-elected only once and that the same terms of reference sought “to stagger membership and provide continuity”. Bearing this in mind, along with the fact that several of the members could not be nominated for re-election in 2018, the Committee requests States Parties to consider nominating and re-electing members that can provide that continuity and thus contribute to the future work of the Committee through the acquis accumulated so far.”

In the report on the work of its sixth meeting the Committee also made the following recommendation concerning fair representation of both genders, which was subsequently included as paragraph 70 of resolution ICC-ASP/16/Res.6, entitled “Strengthening the International Criminal Court and the Assembly of States Parties”:

“70. Recalling the terms of reference of the Advisory Committee on Nominations of Judges of the International Criminal Court adopted by the Assembly via resolution ICC-ASP/10/Res.5, para. 19, requests States Parties which may be considering nominations of their nationals as members of the Advisory Committee to bear in mind that the composition of the Committee should reflect, inter alia, ‘a fair representation of both genders’.”

At its 29 January 2018 meeting, the Bureau decided to establish a working group of the Bureau, comprising one member from each regional group, which would be tasked with identifying nine candidates for nomination by the Bureau and election by the Assembly, and with ensuring that the requirements set out in the Committee’s terms of reference are respected.

Nominations shall be communicated through the diplomatic channel to the Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties, International Criminal Court, Oude Waalsdorperweg 10, 2597 AK The Hague, The Netherlands (or via fax to +31 70 515 8376 or via e-mail to asp@icc-cpi.int). If feasible, the Secretariat would appreciate receiving an electronic copy of the nomination and supporting documents.

The Hague, 14 March 2018
