A. Introduction

1. At the 9th meeting of the eighteenth session, on 6 December 2019, the Assembly decided to hold its nineteenth session in New York from 7 to 17 December 2020. Welcoming the willingness of the Independent Experts to assist with the continuing review process in providing additional background information on their findings and recommendations, as appropriate and feasible,

Taking note of the fact that some issues identified by the Group of Independent Experts are already under active consideration by the Court or in the Bureau working groups, facilitations and other forums (hereinafter Assembly mandates or mandate holders), and that such work should continue and should be coordinated with the larger review process with a view to avoid duplication and benefit from synergies,

Stressing the statutory mandates of the Organs of the Court and of the Assembly of States Parties and that these independent mandates should inform the assessment of the recommendations of the Group of Independent Experts and possible further action, as appropriate, by the Court, the Assembly, or both depending on the nature and purpose of the individual recommendations, and the entity identified as responsible for implementation,

Encouraging the continued engagement of States Parties, the Court and other relevant stakeholders in an efficient and results oriented manner in the review process,

Annex II

Written explanations of position in relation to resolution ICC-ASP/19/Res.7, “Review of the International Criminal Court and the Rome Statute system”

Given the constraints due to the pandemic, following the adoption of resolution ICC-ASP/19/Res.7 on 18 December 2020, States Parties had no opportunity to take the floor on that matter during a plenary meeting of the first resumption of the nineteenth session, as the first resumption continued from 21-23 December in a non-plenary format. Explanations of position were therefore submitted, exceptionally, in written form and are set out below.

A. Explanation of position dated 22 December 2020 by Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Colombia, Costa Rica, Liechtenstein, Sierra Leone and Switzerland

1. Our delegations strongly support the Independent Expert Review (IER). We are thankful to the Group of Independent Experts for providing States Parties and the Court with a solid basis for making meaningful change that will enable the Court to enhance its performance in our collective fight against impunity for the most serious crimes known to humankind.
2. Given the importance of this effort and of getting the IER follow-up process underway as expeditiously as possible, our delegations are pleased that consensus could be found on the Draft resolution, entitled “Review of the International Criminal Court and the Rome Statute system”.
3. We would like to reaffirm the following understanding:
 - The mandate created in the abovementioned draft resolution is an Assembly mandate and will therefore be serviced and supported by the Secretariat of the Assembly, while the Court organs themselves will have their own work to do as part of their mandates.
 - We expect that the process decided on in the abovementioned resolution shall not lead to a burden on the Court’s budget.
 - We would also like to place on the record the common understanding reached in the negotiations of the abovementioned draft resolution that no remuneration will be given for the work of States Representatives appointed to the Review Mechanism.

B. Explanation of position dated 23 December 2020 by Mexico

1. The delegation of Mexico wishes to express its position regarding the resolution entitled “Review of the International Criminal Court and the Rome Statute system”, which was introduced as document ICC-ASP/19/L.7 at 3pm (EST) in the plenary session of the Assembly held on 18 December 2020 and which was subsequently adopted in said session.
2. Our delegation participated from the beginning of the negotiations in good faith, having the best interests of the Court as its main motivation. We showed flexibility and sought consensus during the debates.
3. We are disappointed by the final text submitted for adoption. We did not favor the 60-day period for nomination set out in operative paragraph 4 of the resolution, and we strongly sought putting in place the Review Mechanism sooner.
4. We did not favor that granting resources to the Mechanism be subject to a very cumbersome process. We hope this does not result in its failure to achieve its fundamental mission.
5. The delegation of Mexico regrets that mistrust amongst delegations prevailed in this negotiation process and has resulted in a less than optimal review implementation mechanism.
6. As a member of the Bureau, Mexico will continue pursuing the implementation of the necessary reforms to bring the ICC to the level of excellence we all want and that it deserves.
