

Reference: ICC-ASP/19/IS/64

The Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties presents its compliments to invited States, and with reference to its note verbale ICC-ASP/19/S/61 of 4 November 2020, has the honour to recall that States not having observer status in the Assembly may nonetheless be invited to be present in the forthcoming session.

Rule 94 of the Rules of Procedure of the Assembly of States Parties reads as follows:

“Rule 94 States not having observer status

At the beginning of each session of the Assembly, the President may, subject to the approval of the Assembly, invite a given State which is not a party and does not have observer status to designate a representative to be present during the work of the Assembly. A representative who is so designated may be authorized by the Assembly to make a statement.”

The Secretariat therefore requests that the name of the corresponding representative for the nineteenth session of the Assembly, to be held in The Hague from 14 to 16 December 2020, be submitted well in advance of the session. This would facilitate the work of the Assembly.

Communications should be sent to the Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties, Room A.00.49, Oude Waalsdorperweg 10, 2597 AK, The Hague, the Netherlands. Copies may also be sent via fax to +31-70-515-8376 or via e-mail to asp@icc-cpi.int. As of 14 December 2020, all communications for the nineteenth session should be delivered directly to the Secretariat of the Assembly at the beginning of the session in The Hague.

Additional information regarding the nineteenth session is available on the Internet website of the Court (<http://www.icc-cpi.int>).
