[Original: English]

Note verbale

The Embassy of Sweden presents its compliments to the Secretariat of the Assembly of State Parties to the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court and has the honour, in reference to the Secretariat's note ICC-ASP/16/SP/51 of 25 September 2017, to inform that the Government of Sweden has decided to present the candidature of Ms. Ingrid Eiken Holmgren for election to the Committee on Budget and Finance of the International Criminal Court, at the elections to be held during the sixteenth session of the Assembly of State Parties in New York in December 2017.

Ms. Eiken Holmgren has extensive professional experience in areas pertinent to the work of the Committee on Budget and Finance. She has long experience in leading positions within the Swedish Government and national authorities, including specifically in the areas of finance, budget and audit. She has broad experience of Nordic, European Union, and international cooperation. During the past six years, she has been within the private sector, as CEO, and with several board memberships, including in non-profit organizations with a humanitarian focus.

An economist by profession, Ms. Eiken Holmberg served in the Budget Department of the Swedish Ministry of Finance as a Chief Operating Officer of analysis and budget negotiations between 1987 and 1992, as well as between 1994 and 1999, in total seven years.

From 1992 to 1994, Ms. Eiken Holmberg worked as an economist at the International Monetary Fund, in Washington D.C., United States of America.

From 1999 to 2001, Ms. Eiken Holmberg was the head of, and responsible for, the finance and budget of the Swedish Presidency of the Council of the European Union (more commonly known as the EU Presidency), a presidency which had a budget of approximately 95 million euros.

From 2001 to 2006, Ms. Eiken Holmberg served as a Deputy Director General in the Prime Minister's Office and as Head of the Government Offices Internal Audit.

From 2006 to 2012, Ms. Eiken Holmberg was State Secretary in the Ministry of Culture, Media and Sports.

Since 2012, she has been the CEO of Mäklarsamfundet, the umbrella organization for Swedish real estate agents.

Additionally, Ms. Eiken Holmberg has, over the years, fulfilled several missions as Special Advisor and Expert to governmental committees and inquiries, as well as consultations for various boards and committees, such as the World Exhibition to Shanghai and the Swedish Parasports Federation.
