

ALTHEA ALEXIS-WINDSOR
Judge of the Supreme Court of
Trinidad and Tobago

Professional Experience:

Sep 2013- Present.	Judge of the Supreme Court of Trinidad and Tobago.
Nov 2009- August 2013,	Appeals Counsel (P4-7), United Nations International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda.
February 2004- Oct 2009	Trial Attorney (P4-1), UN ICTR
Oct 2002- Jan 2004	State Counsel III, Trinidad and Tobago, Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions Appointed Senior State Counsel- June 2004
Sept 2001-Sept 2002	Deputy Director, Human Rights Unit, Ministry of Attorney General
Mar 1998-Aug 2000	State Counsel I, Trinidad and Tobago Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions
Jan 1997-Feb 1998 Law Firm of Hansraj Bhola	Associate Attorney at Law

Education:

Sep 2000- Jul 2001 Masters of Law (LLM) Honours, Utrecht University,
The Netherlands.

LLM-International Criminal Law, specializing in the Internalization of Crime and Criminal Justice.

LLM Thesis titled: ' Can the system of justice at the ICTR contribute towards peace and reconciliation in Rwanda?'

Sep 1994- June 1996 Certificate of Legal Education (LEC)
Hugh Wooding Law School, Trinidad

Sep 1991- Jun 1994 Bachelor of Laws (LLB) Hans
University of the West Indies, Barbados

Major Publications:

The Fourth Pillar, are the two systems really converging?

October 2001, West Indian
Law Journal

The convergence of the common law and inquisitorial systems in International Criminal Law

In 'From Human Rights to International Criminal; Studies in Honour of an African Jurist, the late Laity
Kama'. Edited by Emmanuel Decaux, Adama Dieng and Malick Sow. Published©2007 by Martinus Nijhoff