

RECOMMENDATION

Council of Ministers of Bosnia and Herzegovina has supported the candidacy of Alma Taso Deljkovic at the 29th session held on October 27, 2015 and recommended her for the member of Board of Directors of the Trust Fund for Victims of International Criminal Court.

Mrs Alma Taso Deljkovic has master degree in psychology and currently is employed by the Court of Bosnia and Herzegovina at the position of Head of Department for the Witness Support. During her career, the candidate has gained invaluable experience in the domain of psychosocial support of traumatized victims, as supported by her qualifications, additional education, working experience and additional activities, participations in available publications, and knowledge of the one of official languages of the International Criminal Court.

Additionally, UNDP BiH recommends Alma Taso Deljkovic as a person with high level of integrity and professionalism.
