

Intersessional meeting
Special Working Group on the Crime of Aggression of the Assembly of State Parties to the International Criminal Court

Princeton University
June 13 - 15, 2005

Location of meeting

The meeting will take place at the Princeton University's Woodrow Wilson School in Robertson Hall, Bowl 016 (lower level). Robertson Hall is located at the corner of Washington Road and Prospect Avenue (a large white building with white columns). As you enter the building at ground level, you will see signs posted directing you to the lower level where the meeting will be held.

We will have an office set up in room 015 with telephones, computers, and several outlets to plug in your laptops. This facility will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. for your use.

Registration/Information Table – June 13

We will have a registration table set up at 8:30 a.m. outside Bowl 016 where you will each receive a meeting folder which will include the agenda, name tag, campus maps, etc. University staff will be available to assist with any questions you may have.

Hotel Information

For those who reserve hotel accommodations, you will be staying at the Nassau Inn located at 10 Palmer Square in the center of Princeton. Their telephone number is (609) 921-7500; fax (609) 921-9385, and the website for more information is www.nassauinn.com. The Nassau Inn requires photo identification when you check in. There is a $200.00 fine if you smoke in a non-smoking guest room so please note your preference on the reservation form. Participants will be responsible for the fine.

The organizers will cover the cost of your hotel room; participants will cover all other charges to the room [including telephone charges]. Regarding telephone calls from your hotel room, the Nassau Inn advises that you either use a cell phone, purchase a telephone calling card from their gift shop or from one of the shops nearby. The hotel provides daily telephone and internet packages that begin at $7.95 per day, but this does not cover international calls. Placing calls from your hotel room, especially international calls, can be very expensive.

If you must arrive or depart the hotel earlier or later than the dates you requested, it is important that you immediately notify the Nassau Inn [or Dottie Hannigan, (609) 258-6200] with this information to avoid unnecessary charges. No-shows and/or early departure charges could be billed to the participant if proper notification to the hotel or Dottie Hannigan is not made.

Train information

- From New York City [Penn Station] to Princeton Junction, you can take NJ Transit train, Northeast Corridor line (schedule at www.njtransit.com) or Amtrak (schedule at www.amtrak.com).
- To continue from Princeton Junction to Princeton University, you can either take a taxi which you should find at the station [if not, here are a few telephone numbers for Princeton taxis: (609) 921-1177, (609) 924-1756, (609) 924-1222. Rates run approximately $12.00 - $15.00]. OR you can take the “Dinky” train from Princeton Junction (a five minute ride) to Princeton. From there, you can either walk from the station (about a 10 - 15 minute walk to the Nassau Inn) or use taxi service.

More Travel Information

More information on train and air travel, directions, campus maps, and more can be found at the University website below. Highlight, then Ctrl-click to open website. <http://www.princeton.edu/Siteware/Visitors.shtml>