Resumed fourth session

New York
26 and 27 January 2006

Second election of the judges of the International Criminal Court

Note by the Secretariat

1. The election of the judges of the International Criminal Court will take place during the resumed fourth session of the Assembly of States Parties, to be held from 26 to 27 January 2006.

2. Under the terms of article 36 of the Rome Statute, six judges will be elected to serve for a term of nine years.

3. According to article 36, paragraph 4, States Parties were required to make nominations either by the procedure for the nomination of candidates for appointment to the highest judicial offices in the State in question or the procedure provided for the nomination of candidates for the International Court of Justice in the Statute of that Court. In addition, nominations were to be accompanied by a statement in the necessary detail specifying how the candidate fulfils the requirements laid down in paragraph 3 of article 36.

4. According to article 36, paragraphs 3 and 5, the judges were to be nominated from among persons of high moral character, impartiality and integrity who possess the qualifications required in their respective States for appointment to the highest judicial offices. Every candidate for election to the Court should also have an excellent knowledge of and be fluent in at least one of the working languages of the Court. In addition, two lists of candidates have been established (see annex II to the present note):

List A - Candidates having established competence in criminal law and procedure, and the necessary relevant experience, whether as judge, prosecutor, advocate or in other similar capacity, in criminal proceedings;

List B - Candidates having established competence in relevant areas of international law such as international humanitarian law and the law of human rights, and extensive experience in a professional legal capacity which is of relevance to the judicial work of the Court.

For purposes of this election to the Court, at least one judge will be elected from list A and at least one judge from list B.

* Re-issued for technical reasons in English only on 22 December 2005.

5. Article 36, paragraph 6, requires that the judges be elected by secret ballot at a meeting of the Assembly of States Parties convened for that purpose under article 112, and that the persons elected to the Court shall be the six candidates who obtain the highest number of votes and a two-thirds majority of the States Parties present and voting. In addition, in case a sufficient number of judges are not elected on the first ballot, successive ballots will be held until the remaining places have been filled, in accordance with the provisions of resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6.

6. Under the terms of article 36, paragraphs 7 and 8, no two judges may be nationals of the same State, and the States Parties shall, in the selection of judges, take into account the need, within the membership of the Court, for the representation of the principal legal systems of the world; equitable geographical representation; and a fair representation of female and male judges. In addition, States Parties are required to take into account the need to include judges with legal expertise on specific issues, including, but not limited to, violence against women or children.

7. The Assembly of States Parties to the Rome Statute, during the third session, at its 6th plenary meeting, on 10 September 2004, adopted a resolution relating to the election of the judges, namely resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6 on the procedure for the nomination and election of the judges of the International Criminal Court.

8. In accordance with paragraph 13 of resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6, the nomination period was opened on 18 July 2005, by a decision of the Bureau of the Assembly of States Parties, and closed on 20 November 2005. In accordance with paragraph 3 of the resolution, the nomination period was initially opened for 12 weeks. In accordance with paragraph 11 of the same resolution, the President of the Assembly extended the nomination period three times, for two weeks at a time. While 11 nominations were received during the nomination period, one nomination was withdrawn on 16 November 2005. Accordingly, there were ten nominations by the closing date of 20 November 2005.

9. As required by paragraph 8 of the same resolution, the Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties placed the nominations of candidates for judges, together with the accompanying statements referred to in article 36 of the Statute and other supporting documentation on the Internet web site of the International Criminal Court<sup>1</sup> as soon as they were received.

10. In accordance with paragraph 9 of the resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6, a list in English alphabetical order of all persons nominated, with accompanying documents, is contained in annex I to the present note (see ICC-ASP/4/33/Add.1). Three additional lists are provided in further annexes containing the names of the candidates organized according to list A or B (annex II), by regional group (annex III) and by gender (annex IV).

11. The procedure to be followed for the election of judges is laid down in paragraphs 15 to 25 of resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6.

12. A guide for the second election of the judges is contained in document ICC-ASP/4/34.
