

Part III
Resolutions adopted by the Assembly of States Parties

Resolution ICC-ASP/5/Res.1

Adopted at the 7th plenary meeting on 1 December 2006, by consensus

ICC-ASP/5/Res.1 Permanent Premises

The Assembly of States Parties,

Recalling its resolution ICC-ASP/4/Res.2, which emphasized that “the Court is a permanent judicial institution and as such requires functional permanent premises to enable the Court to discharge its duties effectively and to reflect the significance of the Court for the fight against impunity” and recommended, “bearing in mind the recommendation of the Committee contained in paragraph 86 of its report on the work of its fifth session (ICC-ASP/4/27), that the Bureau of the Assembly and the Committee remain seized of the matter and report to the fifth session of the Assembly of States Parties on the issue of permanent premises of the Court”<sup>1</sup>,

Recalling that three options for permanently housing the Court have been under consideration, namely: (1) remaining in the current location (Arc Building); (2) moving to the premises of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia; and (3) building purpose-built premises on the Alexanderkazerne site,

Further recalling the original host State bid that provided premises free of charge until 2012, and the further host State bid as provided in the letter dated 25 January 2006 from the Minister for Foreign Affairs of the host State to the President of the Assembly of States Parties<sup>2</sup>,

Noting the report of the Bureau on the issue of permanent premises of the International Criminal Court<sup>3</sup> that refers to the informal interim report on permanent premises, which tends to conclude that the third option would probably offer the greatest flexibility in terms of planning and costs,

Underscoring that the premises of the Court must respond to the needs of the different stakeholders in terms of functionality, flexibility (both in construction terms and in the application of costs), scalability, security, character and identity and that the design should reflect these requirements,

Mindful of the reports of the Committee on Budget and Finance on the work of its sixth<sup>4</sup> and seventh<sup>5</sup> sessions,

1. Requests that, without prejudice to the prerogative of the Assembly to make a final decision on where to permanently house the Court, the International Criminal Court should now focus on option 3 only, purpose-built premises on the Alexanderkazerne site, with a view to allowing the Assembly to take an informed decision at its next session;

2. Requests the Court, in order to allow a review by the Committee on Budget and Finance at its eighth session in 2007:
    - (a) To finish preparing in the shortest possible time a detailed functional brief that would include its user and security requirements reflecting scalability in terms of staffing levels;
    - (b) To prepare, in consultation with the host State, cost estimates for the project; and
    - (c) To prepare, in consultation with the host State, a provisional timetable with key decision points, a summary of planning and permit issues, and a planning strategy for the site showing possible modular approaches to scalability;
  3. Requests the host State, in order to allow a review by the Committee on Budget and Finance at its eighth session in 2007, to provide further information on the financial and land offers contained in the further host State bid, including the possible options and methods for managing the proposed loan, any legal issues concerning the separation of ownership of the land and the proposed buildings and other issues that would be subject to a contract between the host State and the Court;
  4. Requests the Bureau to review the information requested in operative paragraphs 2 and 3 and to identify any gaps or other concerns to the Court and the host State so that the information is completed to the required level;
  5. Requests the host State, in consultation with the Bureau and the Court, to propose the framework, criteria, legal parameters and modalities for an international architectural concept design competition, including any pre-selection criteria and process;
  6. Mandates the Bureau, if it is satisfied with the information provided under operative paragraphs 2, 3 and 5 above, to invite the host State to commence provisionally an international pre-selection process for architects, in accordance with the host State offer to organize and fund such a process, without prejudice to the prerogative of the Assembly of States Parties to respond to the remaining elements of the further host State bid of 25 January 2006;
  7. Requests the Bureau, in consultation with the Court and the host State, to prepare options for a governance structure for the project that would specify the respective roles and responsibilities of the Assembly, the Court and the host State;
  8. Requests the Bureau to prepare options for effective participation by the Assembly of States Parties in the project governance and oversight structures;
  9. Requests the Court to establish and staff a project management structure within the Court as per programme 5200 of the proposed programme budget for 2007<sup>6</sup>;
  10. Encourages the Bureau to make use of experts from States Parties in fulfilling its mandate under this resolution.

ICC-ASP/5/Res.2

Strategic planning process of the Court

The Assembly of States Parties,

Recalling operative paragraph 12 of resolution ICC-ASP/4/Res.4 whereby the Assembly of States Parties welcomed the initiation of the strategic planning process of the Court and invited the Court to engage with the Bureau on this process,

Having regard to the Strategic Plan prepared by the Court<sup>1</sup>,

Having regard also to the Strategic Plan for Outreach<sup>2</sup> and the Strategy on Information and Communication Technologies<sup>3</sup> prepared by the Court as well as the Prosecutorial Strategy presented by the Prosecutor at two public hearings,

Having regard to the report of the Bureau on the dialogue initiated with the Court on the Strategic Plan,

Mindful of the ongoing and interactive process of elaboration of such a Plan,

1. Notes with appreciation the efforts made to date by the Court to establish a Strategic Plan, a Strategic Plan for Outreach and a Strategy on Information and Communication Technologies, as well as the efforts made to date by the Prosecutor to establish a Prosecutorial Strategy;
2. Invites the Court to further develop the dialogue initiated with the Bureau on the Strategic Plan;
3. Recommends that such a dialogue should focus on the concrete implementation of the Strategic Plan and include, but not be specifically limited to, cross-cutting issues such as location of the activities of the Court, position of victims, outreach and communication activities of the Court, and the relationship between the Strategic Plan and the budget;
4. Decides to invite the Court to submit to the next session of the Assembly of States Parties an update on the Strategic Plan in the light of the dialogue engaged with the Bureau.

Annex I

Plan of action of the Assembly of States Parties for achieving universality and full implementation of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court

Objectives

1. Universality of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court is imperative if we are to end impunity for the perpetrators of the most serious crimes of international concern, contribute to the prevention of such crimes, and guarantee lasting respect for and enforcement of international justice.
2. Full and effective implementation of the Rome Statute by all States Parties is equally vital to the achievement of these objectives.

States Parties

3. States Parties have the primary responsibility for promoting the objectives set out in paragraphs 1 and 2 above. States should make full use of the political, financial and technical means at their disposal to continue and strengthen their efforts to achieve these objectives.
4. To this end, States Parties should proactively promote universality and full implementation, including through bilateral and regional relationships, such as by developing initiatives that focus on neighbouring States and on the regions, subregions or other groupings to which they belong, as well as on the particular obstacles faced by those States, regions, subregions or groupings.
5. In addition, States Parties should deepen their own commitment to the Court and to the Rome Statute so as to ensure a strong, effective and efficient institution and thereby encourage other States to join.
6. States Parties' efforts should include:
  - (a) Direct political and other contacts with relevant States, regional groups or regional organizations with the objective of fostering political will and support for ratification and full implementation of the Rome Statute;
  - (b) Where appropriate, efforts to seek an agenda item on the Court in any bilateral contacts, including at the highest levels, with non-States parties;
  - (c) Ratification and full implementation of the Agreement on the Privileges and Immunities of the International Criminal Court and encouragement of its ratification and implementation by other States not yet parties to the Agreement;
  - (d) Providing technical or financial assistance to States wishing to become Parties to the Rome Statute as well as to States and other entities wishing to promote its universality;
  - (e) Convening and supporting seminars, conferences and other national, regional or international events aimed at promoting ratification and full implementation of, and support for, the Rome Statute;

- (f) Wide dissemination of information about the Court and its role, including by giving consideration to inviting representatives of the Court or the Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties to address national, regional and international events;
- (g) Identification of a national contact point for matters related to promotion of the ratification and full implementation of the Rome Statute;
- (h) Providing to the Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties (“the Secretariat”) information relevant to promotion of the ratification and full implementation of the Rome Statute, including, inter alia:
  - (i) Information on obstacles to ratification or full implementation facing States;
  - (ii) National or regional strategies or plans of action to promote ratification and/or full implementation;
  - (iii) Technical and other assistance needs and delivery programmes;
  - (iv) Planned events and activities;
  - (v) Examples of implementing legislation for the Rome Statute;
  - (vi) Bilateral cooperation agreements between the Court and States Parties;
  - (vii) Solutions to constitutional issues arising from ratification;
  - (viii) National contact points for matters related to promotion of ratification and full implementation.
- (i) Full and effective implementation of the Rome Statute, including the duty to cooperate fully with the Court. To this end, any State facing difficulties with ensuring full implementation should identify its assistance needs promptly with a view to obtaining appropriate technical and/or financial assistance;
- (j) Active participation in and support for the meetings and activities of the Assembly of States Parties and its subsidiary bodies, in order to, inter alia, promote attendance at Assembly meetings by other States Parties and those not yet parties.

Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties

7. The Secretariat should support States in their efforts to promote universality and full implementation of the Rome Statute by acting as a focal point for information exchange, within existing resources, including by:

- (a) Collecting and collating relevant information from States Parties, regional organizations, members of the non-governmental community and others engaged in promoting universality and full implementation of the Rome Statute;
- (b) Ensuring that such information is readily and widely accessible and disseminated to interested States and others.

Assembly of States Parties

8. The Assembly, through its Bureau, should keep this plan of action under review, including by monitoring the status of ratifications of the Rome Statute, developments in the field of implementing legislation, and the range of obstacles to ratification and full implementation faced by States.

Article 54

Settlement of disputes with third parties

The Court shall, without prejudice to the powers and responsibilities of the Assembly under the Statute, make provisions for appropriate modes of settlement of:

Settlement of differences on the interpretation or application of this Agreement or supplementary arrangements or agreements

1. All differences arising out of the interpretation or application of this Agreement or supplementary arrangements or agreements between the Court and the host State shall be settled by consultation, negotiation or other agreed mode of settlement.
2. If the difference is not settled in accordance with paragraph 1 of this article within three months following a written request by one of the parties to the difference, it shall, at the request of either party, be referred to an arbitral tribunal according to the procedure set forth in paragraphs 3 to 5 of this article.
3. The arbitral tribunal shall be composed of three members: one to be chosen by each party and the third, who shall be the chairman of the tribunal, to be chosen by the other two members. Should the first two members fail to agree upon the appointment of the chairman of the tribunal within two months following their appointment, either party may invite the President of the International Court of Justice to choose the chairman.

Annex III

Recommendations on the arrears of States Parties

Recommendation 1

Requests the Registry of the Court (“the Registry”) to provide States Parties, on a quarterly basis, with an updated information note on the contributions received from States Parties since the Rome Statute entered into force for each State Party, as applicable, in order to add transparency to the Court's management and to give States Parties up-to-date information on the financial situation of the Court. Such notification should be addressed to capitals as well as to the relevant embassies and permanent missions in The Hague and New York. In order to ensure that the relevant people receive the necessary information and act accordingly, it may be necessary to reach out to several representatives of any one State Party.

Recommendation 2

Requests the Bureau and individual States Parties to continue to take up the subject of the financial situation of the Court in their bilateral contacts with other States Parties, as appropriate, and to underline the importance of timely payment of contributions for the effective functioning of the Court. In particular, representatives of States Parties in arrears should be made aware of the facts and of the possible implications for the Court of the non-payment or delayed payment of contributions and encouraged to intervene with the relevant authorities of their own Governments.

Recommendation 3

Requests, in order to facilitate better communication between the Court and States Parties on matters of contributions, States Parties to provide the Registry, on a yearly basis and upon the Court's request, with information (name and contact details) of the individual responsible for the actual payments to the Court. This information could be accompanied, on a voluntary basis, by information on when that State Party expects to remit its financial contribution to the Court.

Recommendation 4

Requests the Court to continue to provide States Parties at an early stage with information on its financial viability and ongoing planning in respect of the budget for the following financial period. Without prejudice to the relevant recommendations of the Committee on Budget and Finance and to the decisions of the Assembly of States Parties, such timely information should enable States Parties to take the necessary precautions that will enable them to pay their contributions without delay.

Recommendation 5

Decides that a State Party requesting exemption from the loss of voting rights under article 112, paragraph 8, of the Rome Statute shall submit information and documentation (in accordance with paragraph 42 of resolution ICC-ASP/4/Res.4) that would substantiate and comprehensively support the claim that failure to make necessary payments had been attributable to conditions beyond the control of the State Party concerned.

Recommendation 6

Decides that such State Party may submit documentation that has earlier been submitted elsewhere for comparable purposes. A decision by another organization concerning the loss of voting rights due to non-payment of contributions shall be taken into due account by the Assembly of States Parties, but shall not prejudice its own decision.

Recommendation 7

Further decides that, if possible, requests should be accompanied by a payment plan or other form of political commitment by the requesting State to address the issue as a matter of urgency and to take concrete steps towards payment as soon as possible. While it is up to each State Party to decide whether to engage in a concrete payment scheme, the provision of a payment plan to remit the arrears would substantially increase the possibilities that permission to vote would be granted.

Recommendation 8

Requests that the Secretariat notify twice a year (in mid-January and in mid-June) States Parties which may face losing their voting rights so that they are able to take timely action to pay their arrears.

Recommendation 9

Decides that the Assembly of States Parties could consider applications for exemption from the loss of voting rights with regard to any resumed session of the Assembly, or meeting of the Bureau, that takes place between 1 January and the first session of the Committee on Budget and Finance in any year, without prior recommendation by the Committee.
