For more details and a sample credentials letter/notification letter, see page 6 below.

General considerations in the context of COVID-19

As per Bureau decision, dated 19 October 2022, the Bureau agreed to proceed with the organization of the twenty-first session as in pre-COVID-19 times. The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Netherlands has indicated that as of mid-September 2022 there are no longer any COVID-19 related measures and that it would revert to the Secretariat in the event changes occur.

As per Bureau decision dated 9 November 2022, bearing in mind the objective of minimizing the risk to the safety and well-being of delegates, Court officials and ICC staff, as well as the practice of other intergovernmental organizations, the Bureau requested all attendees not to enter the World Forum if:

- they have been diagnosed with COVID-19 in the last 5 days; or
- they have had symptoms consistent with COVID-19 in the last 5 days.

Furthermore, the Bureau also agreed to recommend that all attendees are requested to use the face mask at all times when inside the World Forum, except when directly addressing a meeting.

Based on possible developments regarding COVID-19 in the Netherlands in November, the Bureau would return to this matter to see whether there is a need to introduce further restrictions or mitigations measures.

Reporting illness

Attendees who become ill are requested to leave the complex immediately and seek medical care. It must be noted that State Parties and respective Embassies are responsible for having in place arrangements to assist their delegates in case of an emergency or medical situation, including liaising with the respective health establishments, general practitioner in The Hague and to ensure that their insurers cover any costs incurred.

Participants with a non-acute medical problem that really needs attention and who have no Embassy or mother-organization in the Netherlands, can contact the International Health Centre in The Hague to arrange an appointment, tel.: +31 70 306 5111.

Attendees who are diagnosed with COVID-19 or show symptoms of the illness are strongly encouraged to notify the Security officers or a Secretariat staff member.

The nearest hospital is: HMC Westeinde, Lijnbaan 32, 2512 VA, Den Haag. Phone: +31 (0) 88 979 7900. .

The main number to call in case of an Emergency (police, fire, ambulance) is 112. For non-urgent matters, the police can be reached at 0900-8844.

Registration

All States participants are advised that they will be admitted to the conference only upon presentation of a Conference pass. The registration form was disseminated to all States via email on 26 October 2022.

NGOs wishing to attend the twenty-first session must submit a written request naming each of their representatives on official letterhead to the ASP Secretariat or to the Coalition for the International Criminal Court (CICC) by 18 November 2022. NGO representatives will have to present the letter issued by the ASP Secretariat, confirming their eligibility to attend the twenty-first session, to the registration desk to obtain a conference pass.

Delegates who have registered by 30 November 2022 can collect their badges during early registration as of Sunday, 4 December from 15:00 to 17:00 hours at the World Forum Convention Centre. Daily registration desks will be open from 5 to 10 December from 08:00 to 16:00 hours. Conference passes will be issued upon presentation of valid identification, preferably a passport.

The Hague-based delegates of States who are in possession of an ICC badge, do not need to submit a registration form, as they can access the premises with the ICC badge.

Given the large number of participants expected, delegates arriving before the opening of the session are encouraged to register as early as possible.

During registration, Governments should ensure that the registration form includes the individual email address of each member of the delegation. Providing the individual e-mail addresses will ensure that all representatives receive any additional information that the Secretariat might need to send with regard to the twenty-first session.

Provisional agenda, work programme and ASP Journal

The provisional agenda for the twenty-first session of the Assembly is contained in document ICC-ASP/21/1 and can be found on the website of the Assembly here.

In view of the crucial nature of the matters to be considered by the Assembly at the session and the need to reach important decisions, Government representation at the highest possible political level is strongly encouraged. Governments are also encouraged to include in their delegations representatives of central authorities and other Government representatives with expertise in the issues covered in the agenda.

In addition, the provisional programme of work, as approved by the Bureau, can be found at the above link.

The daily ASP Journal containing information on meetings, side-events, and announcements will be available on the webpage of the Assembly.

For the Plenary and the meetings of the Working Groups taking place in the King Willem-Alexander room, simultaneous interpretation into Arabic, English, French and Spanish will be provided.

Each seat in the World Forum Theater of the World Forum Convention Center for which simultaneous interpretation is available will be equipped with portable receiving set and headphone.

Participants are requested not to remove that equipment from the meeting rooms so that it may be checked periodically and the batteries may be recharged if necessary.

Seating arrangements

States Parties will be seated in English alphabetical order, starting with the State drawn by lots (Lithuania for the twenty-first session). Four designated seats, two of which will be at a table, will be provided to each State Party. Observer States and invited States will be seated in alphabetical order behind the States Parties. International/Intergovernmental organizations, representatives from the Court, and NGOs will be seated in designated areas.

Meetings

The meetings of the Assembly and of its subsidiary bodies with general membership shall be held in public, unless the Assembly decides that exceptional circumstances require that the meetings shall be held in private. As a general rule, meetings of the Bureau and of subsidiary bodies with limited membership shall be held in private, unless the body concerned decides otherwise.

The programme of the meetings will be included in the ASP Journal, which will be issued digitally on a daily basis and will specify conference rooms and times of meetings here.

Unless otherwise indicated, morning meetings will be held from 10:00 to 13:00 hours; afternoon meetings from 15:00 to 18:00 hours.

The plenary sessions will be live streamed on the ICC YouTube channel of the International Criminal Court in floor, English and French language.

Decision-making

Every effort shall be made to reach decisions in the Assembly and in the Bureau by consensus. If consensus cannot be reached, decisions shall be taken by vote. Each State Party shall have one vote. Decisions on matters of substance must be approved by a two-thirds majority of States Parties present and voting. Decisions on matters of procedure shall be taken by a simple majority of States Parties present and voting. States Parties are reminded of article 112, paragraph 8, of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court which reads:

“A State Party which is in arrears in the payment of its financial contributions towards the costs of the Court shall have no vote in the Assembly and in the Bureau if the amount of its arrears equals or exceeds the amount of the contributions due from it for the preceding two full years. The Assembly may, nevertheless, permit such a State Party to vote in the Assembly and in the Bureau if it is satisfied that the failure to pay is due to conditions beyond the control of the State Party.”

As at 31 October, there were 12 States in arrears.

Elections

At the twenty-first session, the Assembly shall proceed with an election of six members of the Committee on Budget and Finance.

In accordance with article 112, paragraph 8, of the Rome Statute, States in arrears would not be able to vote at the twenty-first session.

More information on the elections as well as nominations can be found here.

General debate

The General debate will take place on the first day of the Assembly, i.e. Monday, 5 December, from 15:00 to 18:00 hours and on the second day, Tuesday, 6 December, from 10:00 to 13:00 and from 15:00 to 18:00 hours.

As per Bureau decision, dated 7 September 2022, given the experience from recent sessions, the modalities of holding the General debate would include pre-recorded videos or in-person statements which may be delivered during the General debate. Ministers, Vice-Ministers and State Secretaries will be given precedence on the list. Time slots will be allocated on first-come first-serve basis with States Parties being given priority. All pre-recorded statements should be submitted by end of 30 November 2022 (CET). The Bureau encourages States to deliver statements of no more than five minutes and also invites States in a position to do so to submit written statements only.

In accordance with rule 50 of the Rules of Procedure and with previous decisions of the Assembly, delegations are kindly reminded to deliver statements of no more than 5 minutes and the list of speakers has been prepared on the basis of the agreed 5-minute statement by each delegation.

Each delegation will be allocated one slot only. Delegations are advised that any changes to the level of representation for the general debate of the twenty-first session should be communicated as soon as possible to the focal point of the Secretariat dealing with the general debate, Ms. Estera Luteranova, at: Estera.Luteranova@icc-cpi.int.

Statements

The Secretariat will apply a paperless-approach endorsed by the Bureau as it continues its endeavours to increase the efficiency of meetings. Written statements will not be distributed in the conference room.

Pre-delivery

Speakers at the Assembly of States Parties are advised that providing in advance digital copies of prepared statements which they intend to read out in the Assembly greatly facilitates the work of the Secretariat. Although interpretations rely upon the statement actually delivered, copies of texts help interpreters to correctly render details and nuances. In the absence of a digital copy, speakers are requested to provide 20 copies of their statements, as early as possible in advance of delivery.

Post-delivery

Delegations are invited to send by e-mail an electronic copy of their statement(s), in one or more of the four official languages, to ensure timely posting of the text on the Assembly website. Statements should be sent to: asp@icc-cpi.int.

In accordance with the Bureau's decision on paper-less conference serving, delegations and all participants are requested to provide to the Secretariat digital versions of their statements, preferably in advance of the meetings (asp@icc-cpi.int).

Written statements shall not be reproduced at the expense of the Assembly and shall not be issued as official documents.

Distribution of official documents

In accordance with the Bureau's decision on pursuing a paper-less approach to documentation for the twenty-first session, pre-session documentation will no longer be made available to delegations.

All pre-session documentation in official languages is available here.

As the Assembly strives to have a paper-less approach and as per decision by the Bureau dated 8 September 2021, the in-session documentation will not be distributed in the conference room. In such cases, representatives are requested to provide 20 copies for distribution to the President, Rapporteur, Secretariat, and interpreters to the conference room officer.
