

Public Information and Outreach in Uganda
Calendar of activities – May 2010

Overall Objective: To increase understanding of the ICC, its mandate and activities in Uganda amongst diverse constituencies; to raise awareness about the ICC Review Conference amongst the affected communities by:

- Organising village meetings in Acholi and Lango sub-regions
- Holding consultation meetings with local leaders

Activity	Date	Place	Summary	Means of Verification
NGO briefing - informative session with staff of World Vision	3 May	Kampala	The meeting was organized by the outreach team to provide information about the work of the Court and the Review Conference. The meeting discussed cooperation mechanisms with ICC outreach and World Vision. Audience: 100	Standard feedback evaluation and question forms
Community outreach – village meeting	4 May	Oriang village, Apala sub-county, Lira district, northern Uganda	The team provided information about the activities and mandate of the ICC. Discussions also focused on the Review	-Standard feedback evaluation and question forms

			Conference and its importance to the victims in Uganda and other situations. Attendance: 46
Community outreach – village meeting	4 May	Awe-Acae village, Abia sub County, Lira district, north Uganda	Provided update about the ICC, information materials distributed, and networking mechanisms explored. The meeting provided room for interaction that was followed by a question and answer session. Information in relation to the Review Conference and its importance to the victims in Uganda and other situations was also provided. Number of Audience: 206	Standard feedback evaluation and question forms
Community outreach – village meeting	6 May	Abia Primary school, Apala sub-county, Lira district, northern Uganda	Organised an interactive meeting with the affected communities in Abia, Apala sub-county in Lira district. The Outreach team shared information about the work of the court and responded to questions and concerns raised. Outreach also updated the communities about the	-Monthly report - Feedback from the staff that attended the meeting

			importance of the Review Conference. Attendance: 126
Visit by delegates of the Assembly of States Parties to a school in Apac district	7 May	St Mary's College Aboke, Aboke sub-county, Apac district, Lango sub region, northern Uganda	This session provided the unique opportunity for the ASP delegates to listen to the concerns and views of the students and teachers of St. Mary's high school, regarding the work of the Court. Attendance: 84 students and teachers	-Standard feedback evaluation and question forms
Community outreach – village meeting	8 May	Abia Primary school, Apala sub-county, Lira district, Lango sub region, northern Uganda	The meeting brought together women, youths, community leaders, NGO representatives and children who were eager to interact with the visiting ASP delegates. The Outreach team informed the community about the Review Conference and its significance to victims' communities. The delegates responded to questions in regard to the work of the ASP. Attendance: 1500	-Monthly report - Feedback from the staff that attended the meeting -Standard feedback evaluation and question forms

Community outreach – village meeting	18 May	Lukodi sub ward, Bungatira sub- county, Gulu district, Acholi sub-region, northern Uganda	Organized in partnership with the leadership of Bungatira sub-county, the session provided information, updates and clarified misconception on mandate and activities of the ICC. The audience was also briefed on the Review Conference and its significance. Attendance: 106	feedback evaluation and question forms
Community outreach – village meeting	19 May	Lalweny village, Bungatira, sub- county, Gulu district, Acholi sub region, northern Uganda	Information about the work of the Court was provided. Outreach responded to questions and concerns raised by the community Attendance: 64	-Standard feedback evaluation and question forms
Community Outreach – village meeting	19 May	Lagoticol and Loyoboo villages, Bongatira sub- county, Gulu district, Acholi sub-region, northern Uganda	The interactive meeting provided information, updates and clarified misconception on the mandate and activities of the Court. Information in relation to the Review Conference was also provided. Number of audience: 114	-Monthly Standard feedback evaluation and question forms

Community outreach - town hall meeting	29 May	Gulu district council hall, Gulu municipality, Gulu district, Acholi sub- region, northern Uganda	The President of the Court, Judge Sang-Hyun Song, interacted with the general public in Gulu district. He explained the general mandate of the Court and responded to a range of questions. Attendance: 350	- Monthly reports
Community outreach – village meeting	30 May	Lakodi village, Bongatira sub county in sub County, Gulu district, Acholi sub region, north Uganda	The President of the Court, Judge Sang-Hyun Song, visited the most affected communities in Lukodi village in Gulu district. The community welcomed the President with a spectacular cultural dance performance. This was followed by a drama performance which depicted the alleged crimes they suffered during the insurgencies. The President explained the role of the Court and responded to questions and concerns raised by the participants in relation to the work of the Court. Attendance: 670	-Monthly report

Official Opening of the first Review Conference of the Rome statute	PIDS staff provided copies of the keynote speeches made at the opening of the Conference and circulated them to national and international media representatives. PIDS also distributed ICC informational materials to delegates, NGOs and the media.
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------