			Court". This programme connects the ICC to an estimated population of 300,000 Darfurian refugees hosted by 12 United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees' camps in eastern Chad. The new programme promotes for a better understanding of the work of the Court by the affected communities. The refugees' questions to the Court are collected from the camps and recorded by the refugees' voices in Darfurian Arabic; the answers are finalized and recorded at the seat of the Court in The Hague in simplified Arabic. The programme is divided to short episodes, each of three-minute duration, to include only one question and one answer, in order to enable a daily and repeated broadcasting of these episodes. "Ask the Court" aims to address the concerns and expectations expressed by the Darfurian refugees in eastern Chad, and to encounter any misinformation.
Screening Outreach audio visual materials	Along the month	Gaga and Treguine camps in eastern Chad	An audio visual summary about the Situation in Darfur before the Court was screened regularly on a weekly basis in the UNHCR camps of Gaga and Treguine in eastern Chad, in cooperation with teachers who have been trained to explain the work of the Court and a local "Cinema Projector" owner.	- Monthly and annual reports

			The screening aims to enable thousands of isolated refugees to be informed about and aware of the judicial developments that occurred in this Situation in Darfur since it was referred to the Court.
