

Public Information and Outreach in Uganda
Calendar of activities – November 2009

Overall Objective: Increasing the understanding, mandate and activities of the ICC amongst diverse constituencies in Uganda by:

- Conducting media briefing for journalists in Gulu, Acholi sub region
- Conducting informative sessions for civil society organizations in Gulu district, Acholi sub region
- Conducting village meetings for the grassroots communities in Amuru district, Acholi sub region

| Activity | Date | Place | Summary | Means of Verification |
|--|-------------|---|---|---|
| Media briefing for journalists in Gulu district | 10 November | Gulu municipality, Gulu district Acholi sub-region, Northern Uganda | Organised an interactive two-hour media briefing with journalists in Gulu district to provide information on the Court's activities and the ASP Review Conference scheduled to take place in Uganda next year. Audience: 31 | - Standard evaluation form. - Monthly reports. |
| Informative Session for Civil society organisation/ NGO's operating in Gulu district | 12 November | Gulu Municipality Gulu District Acholi Sub Region, Northern | Interaction with civil society organisations in Gulu provided updates on the Court's activities and the impending ASP Review | - Standard evaluation form. - Monthly |

| | | | | |
|---|----------------|---|---|--|
| | | Uganda | Conference. Audience: 16 | reports. |
| Village meeting | 17 November | Lawange Kwa, Amuru district Acholi sub- region Northern Uganda | Provided update about the ICC and distributed information materials to participants. The meeting provided room for an open dialogue with the affected community which was enhanced by listening to various concerns and responding to them. 62 people were reached including local leaders and the general public | -Feedback information from the field -Detailed report |
| Conducted a Village meeting. | 18 November | Lamola Village, Amuru district Acholi sub-region Northern Uganda | Provided updates about the activities of the ICC and the upcoming Review Conference scheduled to take place in Uganda. Attendance: 116 people | -Feedback information from the field -Detailed report |
| Participated in the Training of VPRS Intermediaries in Kitgum | 20 November | Kitgum Town Council, Kitgum district Acholi sub- region Northern Uganda | The team supported the VPRS during a training session by providing general information about the ICC to intermediaries that would assist victims to participate in the judicial processes of the Court. The participants | Standard evaluation form. - Feedback from the field - Monthly reports. |

| | | | | |
|---|---------------|--|--|---|
| | | | were drawn from four sub-regions most affected by the conflict in northern Uganda, (Acholi, Lango Teso and Madi. Attendance: 39 intermediaries | |
| Training of VPRS Intermediaries in Gulu | 23 November | Gulu Municipality Gulu district Acholi sub-region, Northern Uganda | 50 intermediaries were drawn from the different sub-regions most affected by the conflict in northern Uganda, Acholi, Lango Teso and Madi sub Region. The team supported the VPRS training and gave updated on the work of the Court. | - Standard evaluation form. - Feedback from the field |
| Interview with German Correspondents for the Great Lakes Region | 26 November | Kampala Field Office | The team provided an extensive interview to two journalists on the activities of the Court in Uganda. | |
| Reporting of daily activities, daily media monitoring, inputting information into Outreach database, compiling/entering and evaluating frequently asked questions | 1-30 November | PIDS Field Office in Kampala, Nakawa Division, Central Uganda | Compiled daily activity reports and sent to HQ; media monitoring to keep track of ICC related stories. | Daily reports, online database, daily press cuttings of ICC related stories |