The successful candidate will be expected to:

- (a) translate from Dioula into French and possibly vice versa documents covering a wide range of topics including, but not limited to, legal, military, medical, forensic, human rights, administrative and financial matters;
- (b) summarize texts in Dioula into French;
- (c) actively receive and apply feedback and take part in supervised training activities;
- (d) contribute to terminology and reference databases;
- (e) provide field interpretation between Dioula and French either at HQ or on mission;
- (f) perform other tasks as required (including potentially administrative and/or IT related tasks).

Essential Qualifications

The successful candidate will possess:

- (a) a university degree (from an accredited university or institution with a minimum three years of study) in translation, interpretation, linguistics, law or any other relevant subject;
- (b) minimum experience of two years in translation (0 years with an advanced degree), preferably in an international organization;
- (c) knowledge of the topics dealt with by the Court, e.g. legal, military, medical, forensic, human rights, administrative and financial matters;

- (d) knowledge of relevant computer software, e.g. MS Office and CAT tools, preferably MultiTrans;
- (e) proven ability to work effectively to deadlines;
- (f) an excellent eye for detail, style and usage;
- (g) organizational and time management skills;
- (h) openness to skills development.

KNOWLEDGE OF LANGUAGES

Mother-tongue or equivalent proficiency in Dioula and a near-native command of French is essential. Knowledge of English would be considered a major asset.
