

Public Information and Outreach in Uganda
Calendar of activities – January 2011

Overall Objective: To increase understanding of the mandate of the International Criminal Court and its activities in Uganda amongst diverse constituencies.

Activity	Date	Place	Summary	Means of Verification
Media interaction	8 January	Uganda Broadcasting Corporation (UBC)	The outreach team briefed journalists of the UBC radio station on developments in the ICC and responded to questions and comments. Most of the questions asked were related to the role of the ICC in promoting justice and accountability. Number of Audience: 3	-Monthly report
Participation in a radio Programme	8 January	Uganda Broadcasting Corporation (UBC)	The team participated in a two hour radio talk show. The discussion highlighted the mandate and activities of the Court and provided information on the situations that are before it. Members of the public participated in the discussion via telephone and text messages. Questions which arose from misperception were adequately addressed by the	-Monthly report - Feedback from the listeners

			team.  Audience: An estimated audience of 4.5 million listeners nationwide
Youth meeting	11 January	Luzira, Kampala	The team interacted with 96 youths from the Luzira community in Kampala. Information on the work of the Court and the situations before it were discussed. Crimes under the Court's jurisdiction, including war crimes against women and children were highlighted.  Number of Audience: 92	- Monthly reports  -Quality of questions asked
5 Bilateral Meetings with law research student	11, 12 & 13 and 17 January	Kampala	During the meeting Outreach explained the mandate and activities of the ICC, situations under investigations and the position of the Court's indictments against the remaining top LRA commanders. 5 researchers	-Monthly reports
Meeting with staff of the Uganda Law Society (ULS)	25 January	Kampala	The meeting was to follow up the Female Counsel campaigned launched last year in Kampala during the Review Conference. The meeting looked into the possibility of continuing the partnership as well as the campaign. A follow up meeting was scheduled	-Monthly reports

			early next month  Participant: 1 staff of ULS
Bilateral meeting with a doctoral research student from the University of Pretoria	28 January	Kampala	Outreach staff explained its strategy and plan of action for 2011 to a doctoral research student from the University of Pretoria, South Africa. The team also made mention of its activities in the previous years and how it has influenced the perceptions of the affected communities in relation to the work of the Court.	-Monthly reports
Planning meeting with FIDA	31 January	Kampala	In order to continue the female counsel campaign which was launched last year, the Unit met with a representative of FIDA to explore possibilities of continuation of the campaign through existing plan of action.  Participant: 1 staff of FIDA
Reporting of daily activities, daily media monitoring, planning meetings with partners and other administrative issues.	1-31 January	PIDS Field Office in Kampala	The team Prepared daily reports and sent to HQ; and Monitored Media, to keep track of ICC related stories and took appropriate interventions when it was required, Planned and coordinated PIDS activities and worked with relevant Partners	Daily reports, press cuttings of ICC related stories circulated.

