

Public Information and Outreach in Darfur, Sudan
Calendar of Activity – March / June 2008

Overall Objective:

- To increase awareness of the ICC mandate and judicial activities amongst affected communities, key stake holders and the general public.
- To increase the understanding of and support for the ICC amongst key stakeholders and affected communities.

Activity	Date	Place	Summary	Means of verification
Broadcast of an audio drama	14 Mar 08	Refugee camps in eastern Chad	To broadcast an audio drama in four local languages (Fur, Agawam, Marsalis and Darfurian Arabic). Aimed at reaching out to the local Darfurian communities in the refugee camps in eastern Chad to explain the principles of the ICC, the Court's objectives, role and jurisdiction, etc, in order to sensitise the camp members about the work of the ICC and its activities and mission, in turn, preparing them to accept the concept of international justice and to co-operate with the ICC in order to achieve justice	- Discussions or seminar with audience/ Visit to monitor the comments of the audience/ Work on the results from the evaluation
Theatre project	Postponed due to the security	Refugee camps in eastern	Theatre projects are to be conducted inside each refugee camp for about two to three	- Discussions or seminar with audience/ Visit

	situation in eastern Chad	Chad	months. The aim of which is to use theatre to educate people on, and promote the role and jurisdiction of the Court. This in turn will build up the trust of refugees in the ICC, thereby allowing for positive refugee co-operation with the Court in order to implement justice	and monitor the group from time to time/ Work on the results from the evaluation
(Three) meetings with key representatives of the Sudanese community	Confidential	Confidential	To broaden an understanding of and support for the ICC and create networks amongst the participants	- Confidential
A face-to-face meeting with affected Darfurians in refugee camps in Chad	15 June 08 to 22 June 08 (or as soon as the security issue allows)	Refugee camps in eastern Chad	To provide updates about ICC activities and increase an awareness of the Court's mandate and judicial activities. This in turn will improve the way the Court is perceived amongst the refugee communities in the camps in eastern Chad	- Standard evaluation form (if possible)/ List of FAQ/ Quality of participants questions and answers/ Feedback info