Information on the implementation of the ICC Statute

Signing of the Agreement between the Republic of Serbia and the International Criminal Court on the enforcement of sentences of the International Criminal Court.

The Agreement was signed in the Hague on January 20, 2011. It was subsequently ratified by the Serbian National Assembly in spring 2011. Ratification of this Agreement represents one step further in Serbia's support to the work of the Court. Besides that, this is another concrete activity which confirms Serbia's determination that war crimes must be punished, irrelevant to where they were executed.

Conference dedicated to the ICC

In mid October 2011, the conference dedicated to the ICC "ICC-from Rome to Kampala" was held in Belgrade. The Conference was attended by Mrs. Silvana Arbia, registrar of the ICC. This was an opportunity to represent the activities taken so far but also to demonstrate Serbia's commitment to this important institution.
