

Public Information and Outreach in the Democratic Republic of the Congo
Calendar of activities – November 2008

Overall Objectives:

- Publicise the Court's judicial activities, especially the decision on the confirmation of charges against Katanga and Ngudjolo Chui
- Explain the judges' decision to resume proceedings in the Lubanga case
- Prepare minds for the commencement of Bemba's confirmation hearing
- Raise awareness among previously untargeted groups

| Activity   | Date             | Location                 | Summary  | Evaluation tools                     |
|--|------------------|--------------------------|--|--------------------------------------|
| Information morning for human rights activists  | 3 November 2008  | Kinshasa                 | About 200 persons involved in a Christian human rights activist network were informed about the Court. This is a follow-up on our initial meetings with church representatives.200 participants   | Evaluation sheetsQuestions asked |
| Information morning for human rights activists  | 8 November 2008  | Kinshasa                 | About 200 persons involved in a Christian human rights activist network were informed about the Court. This is a follow-up on initial meetings with church representatives.200 participants   | Evaluation sheetsQuestions asked |
| Information morning for Boboto College students | 11 November 2008 | Boboto College, Kinshasa | We kicked off an information campaign in Kinshasa schools which targets students in their final year of secondary school and aims to provide information about the ICC. We want to reach at least one school a month.120 participants           | Evaluation sheetsQuestions asked |
| Information morning for human rights NGOs       | 13 November 2008 | Kinshasa                 | We were invited to this activity to provide information about the Court and pending cases. These NGOs are particularly interested in the Trust Fund for Victims and are working on cases of sexual violence.15 NGO representatives participated | Questions asked                      |

|   |                     |                            |   |                                      |
|---|---------------------|----------------------------|---|--------------------------------------|
| Information morning for human rights activists   | 18 November 2008    | Kinshasa                   | About 200 persons involved in a Christian human rights activist network were informed about the Court. This is a follow-up on our initial meetings with church representatives.200 participants  | Evaluation sheetsQuestions asked |
| Press briefing, interviews with the media on the decision to lift the stay in proceedings in the Thomas Lubanga Dyilo case | 18-22 November 2008 | Kinshasa and Bunia (Ituri) | Explain the news about the lifting of the stay in the proceedings against Thomas Lubanga and the provisional date for the commencement of the trial (26 January 2009) to numerous media outlets: RTNC, Radio Okapi, Radio Okapi Bunia, RTGA, Tropicana TV, Top Congo, Antenne A, Digital TV, Amen TV, CEBS, Radio Colombe, Radio Océan, Radio Candip, Radio Canal Révélation, Radio Amkeni, RTK and Radio Tempête du Lac. |                                      |
| Recording of a television programme in anticipation of Bemba's confirmation hearing  | 24 November 2008    | Kinshasa (Antenne A)       | To reach a wider audience, we produced a programme in Lingala, the language spoken in Kinshasa. The aim is to prepare minds for this occasion.Programme: Mpifo on Antenne A   |                                      |
| Recording of a television programme in anticipation of Bemba's confirmation hearing  | 25 November 2008    | Kinshasa (Raga TV)         | To reach a wider audience, we produced a programme in Lingala, the language spoken in Kinshasa. The aim is to prepare minds for this occasion.Programme: Mpo na Ekolo on Raga TV  |                                      |
| Recording of a television programme in anticipation of Bemba's confirmation hearing  | 27 November 2008    | Kinshasa (Digital TV)      | To reach a wider audience, we produced a programme in Lingala, the language spoken in Kinshasa. The aim is to prepare minds for this occasion.Programme: Justicia on Digital TV   |                                      |