

Public Information and Outreach in the Central African Republic Calendar of Activities – October 2010

Overall objectives:

- Raise awareness among the public in the Central African Republic on the mandate, role, functioning and activities of the ICC;
- Organise a partner consultation in Bozoum, Sibut and PK22 about setting up the listening club project;
- Begin training the listening clubs set up by the International Criminal Court in the various localities;
- Provide the general public and CAR media professionals with fast and accurate updates on the ICC's legal developments.

Activity	Date	Place	Summary	Evaluation tools
Distribute the weekly newsletter produced by the International Criminal Court to the media	1 October	Bangui	"ICC Weekly Update" newsletter no. 48 sent to the media (TV, press, and radio stations). Around 1,000 people informed.	- E-mail distribution list
Radio and TV broadcasts of the "In the Courtroom" episode summarising the status conference of 24/09/2010 in the case of The Prosecutor v. Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo	4 October	Bangui	ICC's audiovisual production "In the Courtroom" distributed to CAR radio stations (Bangui and the provinces) and the public TV station. This 8-minute report was broadcast 109 times during the week of 6 to 12 October. Around 800,000 people informed.	Activity report submitted by each of the radio stations and the public TV station to the ICC field office in Bangui.
Consultation meetings about setting up listening	5 October	Bozoum, Ouham-Pende	- Consultation meetings with the authorities/leaders of Bozoum to identify the key associations active	- Mission report available at the ICC office

clubs		prefecture	in the locality in order to meet with them as part of the implementation of the ICC's listening club project - Handout of "guidelines for listening clubs" document. 5 people met.	- Number of listening clubs set up by the ICC in Bozoum
Consultation meeting about setting up listening clubs	6 October	Bozoum, Ouham-Pende prefecture	- Consultation meeting with the OFCA (Organisation of Central African Women) in order to find out more about the NGO's mission and activities and to present the ICC's listening club project. - Handout of "guidelines for listening clubs" document and an ICC information pack 12 participants.	- Agreement in principle between the association and the ICC Outreach Unit to set up a listening club within the NGO - Signature to come from the partnership agreement between the two organisations
Consultation meeting about setting up listening clubs	6 October	Bozoum, Ouham-Pende prefecture	- Consultation meeting with the CEJP (Episcopal Commission for Justice and Peace) in order to find out more about the NGO's mission and activities and to present the ICC's listening club project. - Handout of "guidelines for listening clubs" document and an ICC information pack 6 participants.	- Agreement in principle between the association and the ICC Outreach Unit to set up a listening club within the NGO - Signature to come from the partnership agreement between the two organisations
Consultation meeting about setting up listening clubs	7 October	Bozoum, Ouham-Pende prefecture	- Consultation meeting with the AFJC (Association of Female Lawyers from the CAR) in order to find out more about the NGO's mission and activities and to present the ICC's listening club project. - Handout of "guidelines for listening clubs" document and an	- Agreement in principle between the association and the ICC Outreach Unit to set up a listening club within the NGO - Signature to come from the partnership agreement between

			ICC information pack 7 participants.	the two organisations
Distribute the weekly newsletter produced by the International Criminal Court to the media	11 October	Bangui	“ICC Weekly Update” newsletter no. 49 sent to the media (TV, press, and radio stations). Around 1,000 people informed.	- E-mail distribution list
Inform the CAR public about the case of The Prosecutor v. Callixte Mbarushimana, situation in the Democratic Republic of the Congo	12 October	Bangui	Press release entitled “Callixte Mbarushimana arrested in France for crimes against humanity and war crimes allegedly committed in the Kivus (Democratic Republic of the Congo)” sent to the media (TV, press, radio stations in Bangui and the provinces). Around 300,000 people informed.	- Media hook-ups
Consultation meetings about setting up listening clubs	12 October	Sibut, Kémo prefecture	- Consultation meetings with the authorities/leaders of Sibut to identify the key associations active in the locality in order to meet with them as part of the implementation of the ICC’s listening club project - Handout of “guidelines for listening clubs” document. 5 people met.	- Mission report available at the ICC office - Number of listening clubs set up by the ICC in Sibut
Consultation meeting about setting up listening clubs	12 October	Sibut, Kémo prefecture	- Consultation meeting with OFCA (Organisation of Central African Women) in order to find out more about the NGO’s mission and activities and to present the ICC’s listening club project. - Handout of “guidelines for listening clubs” document and an ICC information pack	- Agreement in principle between the association and the ICC Outreach Unit to set up a listening club within the NGO - Signature to come from the partnership agreement between the two organisations

			9 participants.
Consultation meeting about setting up listening clubs	12 October	Sibut, Kémo prefecture	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Consultation meeting with the Prefectoral Committee for Combating Harmful Practices against Women and Girls in Kémo in order to find out more about the Committee's mission and activities and to present the ICC's listening club project. - Handout of "guidelines for listening clubs" document and an ICC information pack 12 participants.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Agreement in principle between the Committee and the ICC Outreach Unit to set up a listening club within the NGO - Signature to come from the partnership agreement between the two organisations
Consultation meeting about setting up listening clubs	13 October	Sibut, Kémo prefecture	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Consultation meeting with the AFJC (Association of Female Lawyers from the CAR) in order to find out more about the NGO's mission and activities and to present the ICC's listening club project. - Handout of "guidelines for listening clubs" document and an ICC information pack 9 participants.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Agreement in principle between the association and the ICC Outreach Unit to set up a listening club within the NGO - Signature to come from the partnership agreement between the two organisations
Distribute the weekly newsletter produced by the ICC to the media	14 October	Bangui	"ICC Weekly Update" newsletter no. 50 sent to the media (TV, press, and radio stations). Around 1,000 people informed.	- E-mail distribution list
Evaluate the partnership between the ICC and the media in the Central African Republic by means of a satisfaction survey	15 October	Bangui	Deadline for receiving satisfaction survey questionnaires from the Central African media (press, radio stations and TV) 8 questionnaires received.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Questionnaires completed by the media - Analysis report available at the ICC Field Office in Bangui.
Distribute the weekly newsletter	18 October	Bangui	"ICC Weekly Update" newsletter no. 51 sent to the media (TV,	- E-mail distribution list produced by the ICC to the media			press, and radio stations). Around 1,000 people informed.

Internet broadcast for the CAR media of the public hearing concerning the Appeals Chamber's judgment (on the admissibility challenge) in the case of The Prosecutor v. Jean Pierre Bemba Gombo	19 October	ICC office, Bangui	The necessary means were made available to CAR media professionals to enable them to follow with a time delay, via the Court's website, the public hearing in the case of The Prosecutor v. Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo . 20 journalists present. The presence of journalists at the broadcast enabled details of the hearing to be widely disseminated among the general public in the CAR, both by the press and by radio stations. Around 800,000 people informed.	- Attendance sheet - Multi-question log form - Media hook-ups
Inform the CAR public about the case of The Prosecutor v. Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo , situation in the Central African Republic	19 October	Bangui	Press release entitled "The Appeals Chamber dismisses Mr Bemba's appeal against the decision on the admissibility of his case" distributed to the media (TV, press, radio stations in Bangui and the provinces). Around 800,000 people informed.	- Media hook-ups
Inform the CAR public about the case of The Prosecutor v. Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo , situation in the Central African Republic	20 October	Bangui	Press release entitled "The Appeals Chamber dismisses Mr Bemba's appeal against the decision on the admissibility of his case" distributed to NGOs working to promote, protect and defend Human Rights, women's groups, victims' associations, and higher education institutions. Around 10,000 people informed.	- Information relayed within NGOs and universities
Distribute audiovisual	20 and 21 October	Bangui	CDs distributed to radio stations in Bangui and the provinces, and	- Media hook-ups productions relating to the Appeals Chamber's judgment on the admissibility challenge in the case of The Prosecutor v. Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo			DVD distributed to the public TV station (TV Centrafrique) relating to the Appeals Chamber's judgment on the admissibility challenge in the case of The Prosecutor v. Jean-Pierre Bemba . This audiovisual production was broadcast 106 times during the week of 21 to 27 October. Around 800,000 people informed.

Internet broadcast for the CAR media of the status conference in the case of The Prosecutor v. Jean Pierre Bemba Gombo	21 October	ICC office, Bangui	The necessary means were made available to CAR media professionals to enable them to follow with a time delay, via the Court's website, the status conference in the case of The Prosecutor v. Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo . 19 journalists present. The presence of journalists at the broadcast enabled details of the hearing to be widely disseminated among the general public in the CAR, both by the press and by radio stations. Around 800,000 people informed.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Attendance sheet - Multi-question log form - Media hook-ups
Inform the CAR public about the case of The Prosecutor v. Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo , situation in the Central African Republic	21 October	Bangui	Press release entitled "Trial of Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo to commence on Monday, 22 November, 2010" distributed to the media (TV, press, radio stations in Bangui and the provinces). Around 800,000 people informed.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Media hook-ups
Interview in French and Sango	21 October	ICC office, Bangui	Interviews conducted by three radio stations (Radio Notre Dame, Radio Ndéké Luka, Radio ESCA). The interviews focused on the	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Media hook-ups status conference in the case of The Prosecutor v. Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo . Around 500,000 people informed.

Inform the CAR public about the case of The Prosecutor v. Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo, situation in the Central African Republic	22 October	Bangui	Press release entitled “Trial of Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo to commence on Monday, 22 November, 2010” distributed to NGOs working to promote, protect and defend human rights, women’s groups, victims’ associations, and higher education institutions. Around 10,000 people informed.	- Information relayed within NGOs and universities
Interview in French and Sango	22 October	Radio ESCA offices, Bangui	Interview by Radio ESCA. The interview focused on the two hearings that were held during the week in the case of The Prosecutor v. Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo . The programme was broadcast twice. Around 50,000 people informed.	- Interview broadcast on Radio ESCA
Interview in French and Sango	22 October	Radio Ndékè Luka offices, Bangui	Interview by Radio Ndékè Luka, as part of the “ Justice pour tous ” [“Justice for Everyone”] programme. The interview focused on the two hearings that were held during the week in the case of The Prosecutor v. Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo . The programme was broadcast three times. Around 200,000 people informed.	- Interview broadcast on Radio Ndékè Luka
Radio broadcast of episode 3 of the programme “CPI a kiri na peko ti a ounda ti alla” (“The ICC Answers Your Questions”)	26 October	Bangui	Each month, the Outreach Unit based in Bangui produces a programme in Sango responding to the questions most frequently asked that month during outreach activities in affected communities. The CD of episode 3 was	Activity report submitted by each radio station to the ICC Field Office in Bangui.

			distributed to CAR radio stations in Bangui and the provinces. Episode 3 was broadcast 103 times between 27 October and 2 November. Around 800,000 people informed.
Distribute the weekly newsletter produced by the International Criminal Court to the media	26 October	Bangui	“ICC Weekly Update” newsletter no. 52 distributed to the media (TV, press, and radio stations). Around 1,000 people informed.	- E-mail distribution list
Consultation meeting about setting up a listening club	27 October	PK22, Bimbo, Ombella-Mpoko prefecture	- Consultation meeting with the leaders of PK22 to present the ICC’s listening club project. - Handout of “guidelines for listening clubs” document and an ICC information pack. 13 participants.	- Agreement in principle between the PK 22 leaders and the ICC on setting up a listening club - Signature to come from the partnership agreement between the two organisations
Training for the listening club set up by the ICC	28 October	Damara, Ombella-Mpoko prefecture	Training for members of the listening club set up by the International Criminal Court in Damara. Partnership agreement signed. Radio set, batteries and stationery pack distributed. 12 participants.	- Attendance sheet - Multi-question log form - Signed partnership agreement
Training for the listening clubs set up by the ICC	29 October	Sibut, Kémo prefecture	Training session for members of the three listening clubs set up by the International Criminal Court in Sibut. Partnership agreements signed. Radio sets, batteries and stationery kits distributed. 39 participants.	- Attendance sheet - Multi-question log form - Partnership agreements signed