

Public Information and Outreach in the Democratic Republic of the Congo
Calendar of Activities – June 2011

Overall Objectives:

- To publicise the judicial activities before the Court, in particular in the cases of Thomas Lubanga, Germain Katanga & Mathieu Ngudjolo Chui, Jean-Pierre Bemba Gombo, and Callixte Mbarushimana;
- To ensure wide dissemination of information on the situation in Libya;
- To screen and distribute videos of audio-visual programmes produced by PIDS to partners, and to broadcast radio programmes;
- To organise an academic seminar with professors from Congolese and Central African Republic universities.

Activities	Date	Place	Summary	Evaluation tools
Media briefing	2 June	Bunia, Ituri	Journalists were informed about the calendar of PIDS activities for the month and the latest judicial developments before the Court, in particular the closure of evidence in the Lubanga case, and the situation in Libya. 20 participants	Attendance sheet Evaluation forms
Information day for civil society organisations	3 June	Bunia, Ituri	Participants were given information mainly about the situation in Libya, the prosecutor's application for conducting investigations in Côte d'Ivoire and the development of the trials currently before the Court. A screening of the latest audio-visual programmes was shown. It was followed by a question and answer session. 82 participants	Evaluation forms
Academic seminar on international criminal law	From 4 to 9 June	Kinshasa	The main purpose of this seminar was to encourage universities in the countries where the Court is conducting investigations to design	Attendance sheet Evaluation

			and incorporate in-depth and specialised courses on international criminal law and the ICC into their syllabi. A professor from France was invited to hold a seminar for law professors in the DRC and the CAR in order to build their capacity on the Court and international criminal law in general. 11 participants	forms
Information session for religious leaders	8 June	Bunia, Ituri	Religious leaders were given information about the judicial developments of the cases before the ICC. A screening of the latest audio-visual programmes was shown. It was followed by a question and answer session. 26 participants	Evaluation forms
Information session for lawyers, prosecutors and judges	14 June	Kinshasa	To build the capacity of lawyers, prosecutors and judges to enable them to perform their duties effectively in combating international crimes, a session was held with the participation of a representative of the Victims Participation and Reparations Section in order to assess the jurisprudence related to victim participation. 60 participants	Evaluation forms
Information session on the Day of the African Child	16 June	Kinshasa	Children recited poems and put on sketches to assert their right to protection and their support for the activities of the ICC in this regard. This event was organised in cooperation with the Union des Jeunes pour le Développement et la Solidarité [Youth Union for Development and Solidarity]. Parents also participated, and the poems and sketches were followed by a question and answer session. 130 participants	Attendance sheet Reports broadcast Evaluation forms

Interactive programme on Radio Canal Révélation	21 June	Bunia, Ituri	An interactive programme was produced to respond to the listeners' concerns on the latest judicial developments, in particular the closing statements in the Lubanga trial. Local coverage	Programme broadcast
Information session for journalists	23 June	Kinshasa	A presentation was held on the 2010 outreach report. It was followed by a question and answer session. 40 participants	Attendance sheet Evaluation forms
Information session for civil society representatives	23 June	Kinshasa	Civil society representatives were given information about the ICC and the current cases before the Court. A screening of the latest audio-visual programmes was shown. It was followed by a question and answer session. 60 participants	Attendance sheet Evaluation forms
Information session for lawyers	28 June	Kinshasa	A call for applications from female lawyers was made with the participation of a representative of the Victims Participation and Reparations Section. 60 participants	Evaluation forms
Interactive programmes on local radio stations	Every morning of the month	Ituri	28 interviews in total were given by PIDS staff in Bunia, on 9 local radio stations in Ituri, reaching more than 2 million listeners. Local coverage	Programmes broadcast
Participation in the radio broadcasts of the "Understanding the ICC" series on radio stations in the Kivus	Every Monday of the month	Goma, North Kivu Bukavu, South Kivu	Interactive programmes were conducted by telephone, and listeners had an opportunity to ask questions about the latest developments before the Court. Regional coverage	Programmes broadcast