Resumed thirteenth session

The Hague, 24-25 June 2015

Election of a judge to fill a judicial vacancy of the International Criminal Court*Note by the Secretariat

1. The election of one judge of the International Criminal Court will take place during the resumed thirteenth session of the Assembly of States Parties, to be held in The Hague from 24 to 25 June 2015.

2. Under the terms of article 36 of the Rome Statute, the judge will be elected to fill a vacancy resulting from the 3 June 2014 resignation of elected judge Senator Miriam Defensor Santiago (Philippines). In December 2011, Senator Defensor Santiago had been elected by the Assembly of States Parties for a nine-year term of office, which would have commenced on 11 March 2012.

3. According to article 36, paragraph 4, States Parties were required to make nominations either by the procedure for the nomination of candidates for appointment to the highest judicial offices in the State in question, or by the procedure provided for the nomination of candidates for the International Court of Justice in the Statute of that Court. In addition, nominations were to be accompanied by a statement in the necessary detail specifying how the candidate fulfils the requirements laid down in paragraph 3 of article 36.

4. According to article 36, paragraphs 3 and 5, the judges were to be nominated from among persons of high moral character, impartiality and integrity who possess the qualifications required in their respective States for appointment to the highest judicial offices. Every candidate for election to the Court should also have an excellent knowledge of and be fluent in at least one of the working languages of the Court. In addition, two lists of candidates have been established (see annex II to the present note):

List A Candidates having established competence in criminal law and procedure, and the necessary relevant experience, whether as judge, prosecutor, advocate or in other similar capacity, in criminal proceedings;

List B Candidates having established competence in relevant areas of international law such as international humanitarian law and the law of human rights, and extensive experience in a professional legal capacity which is of relevance to the judicial work of the Court.

5. Article 36, paragraph 6, requires that the judge be elected by secret ballot at a meeting of the Assembly of States Parties convened for that purpose under article 112, and that the person elected to the Court shall be the candidate who obtains the highest number of votes and a two-thirds majority of the States Parties present and voting. In the event that the judge is not elected on the first ballot, successive ballots will be held until the remaining places have been filled, in accordance with the provisions of resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6.

6. Under the terms of article 36, paragraphs 7 and 8, no two judges may be nationals of the same State, and the States Parties shall, in the selection of judges, take into account the need, within the membership of the Court, for the representation of the principal legal systems of the world; equitable geographical representation; and a fair representation of female and male judges. In addition, States Parties are required to take into account the need to include judges with legal expertise on specific issues, including, but not limited to, violence against women or children.

7. The Assembly of States Parties, at the 6th plenary meeting of its third session, on 10 September 2004, adopted resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6 relating to the procedure for the nomination and election of the judges of the International Criminal Court. Furthermore, the Assembly of States Parties, at the 9th plenary meeting of its resumed fifth session, on 1 February 2007, adopted resolution ICC-ASP/5/Res.5 containing an amendment to operative paragraph 27 of resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6. The Assembly, at the 13th plenary meeting of its thirteenth session, on 17 December 2014, adopted resolution ICC-ASP/13/Res.5 containing annex II which amended operative paragraph 27 b) of resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6.

8. In accordance with paragraph 13 of that resolution, the nomination period was opened on 18 February 2015, by a decision of the Bureau of the Assembly of States Parties. By the closing date of 31 March 2015, the Secretariat had received three nominations. By a communication, dated 13 April 2015, the Embassy of Bangladesh to the Netherlands announced the withdrawal of the candidature of Mr. A.B.M. Khairul Haque. The Government of Bangladesh had nominated him by a communication dated 31 March 2015.

9. Furthermore, in accordance with paragraph 27 (d) of that resolution, “[i]f at the time of the election a regional or gender minimum voting requirement is not fulfilled, only candidates that can satisfy any of the underrepresented regional minimum voting requirements as well as the underrepresented gender minimum voting requirement can be nominated.” Given this provision and taking into account the minimum voting requirement applicable to the Group of Asia-Pacific States, only candidates from this region could be nominated for the election.

10. As required by paragraph 8 of the same resolution, the Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties placed the nominations of candidates for judge, together with the accompanying statements referred to in article 36 of the Statute and other supporting documentation, on the Internet web site of the International Criminal Court¹ as soon as possible after they were received. In accordance with paragraph 9 of resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6, a list in English alphabetical order of all persons nominated, with accompanying documents, is contained in the present note. Three additional lists are provided in further annexes containing the names of the candidates organized according to list A or B (annex II), by regional group (annex III) and by gender (annex IV).

11. The procedure to be followed for the election of one judge is laid down in paragraphs 15 to 25 and paragraph 27 of resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6.

12. A guide for the election to fill a judicial vacancy is contained in document ICC-ASP/13/45.

Note verbale

The Embassy of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan presents its compliments to the Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties to the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court, and has the honour to inform the Secretariat that the Government of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan has decided to nominate Dr. Ibrahim Mashhoor Aljazy in accordance with article 36, paragraph 4 (a) (ii) of the Rome Statute to fill the judicial vacancy after the resignation of elected judge Senator Miriam Defensor Santiago (Philippines), at the elections to be held during the resumed session of the Assembly of States Parties scheduled to take place in The Hague on 24-25 June 2015.

The Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan as a strong and long-standing supporter of the International Criminal Court attaches great importance to the quality, effectiveness and efficiency of the criminal procedures, which the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan deems to be a key component in the fight against impunity of the most serious international crimes committed.

In this regard, the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan nominates Dr. Ibrahim Aljazy to the Assembly of States Parties as being eminently qualified to be elected as a judge of the Court. Dr. Aljazy is an excellent international law practitioner with established competence in relevant areas of international law. The Jordanian candidate has gathered extensive judicial experience in his various professional legal capacities and fully meets the requirements set out in article 36, paragraph 3 (b) (ii), of the Rome Statute and stands as a List B candidate at the forthcoming elections. The curriculum vitae and other relevant documents of Dr. Aljazy are attached.

2. PANGALANGAN, Raul C. (Philippines)

[Original: English]

Note verbale

The Embassy of the Republic of the Philippines presents its compliments to the Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties to the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court and has the honor to inform the Secretariat that the Government of the Republic of the Philippines has decided to nominate Dr. Raul C. Pangalangan as a candidate to fill the judicial vacancy resulting from the resignation of elected judge Senator Miriam Defensor-Santiago (Philippines) at the elections to be held during a resumed session of the Assembly of States Parties scheduled to take place in The Hague on 24 and 25 June 2015.

Dr. Pangalangan is a Professor of Law and former Law Dean at the University of the Philippines, and was a Philippine Delegate to the 1998 Rome Conference to establish the International Criminal Court. He has been nominated in accordance with article 36, paragraph 4(a)(ii) of the Rome Statute. He is a person of high moral character, impartiality, and integrity and possesses the qualifications required by Philippine law for appointment to the highest judicial offices.

The Government of the Philippines nominates Dr. Pangalangan based on his established competence in international law, including international humanitarian law and international human rights, and his professional qualifications as a member of the Philippine Bar since 1984 and public interest lawyer. He fully meets the requirements set forth in the Rome Statute, article 36.3(b)(ii). Accordingly, the Republic of the Philippines nominates him as a List B candidate in the forthcoming elections. The nomination document, curriculum vitae and other relevant documents of Dr. Pangalangan are attached.

Dr. Pangalangan received his international law training at the Harvard Law School, where he won prizes in international law, and The Hague Academy of International Law, where he was awarded the Diplôme in International Law. His expertise has been tapped by, inter alia, the Philippine Supreme Court (as amicus counsel), the Philippine Judicial Academy (the official training academy for judges), and the International Committee of the Red Cross (as an international humanitarian law expert). He successfully challenged, as lead counsel before the Supreme Court, the illegal arrests made under a state of emergency in 2006.

The Republic of the Philippines has supported the International Criminal Court from the adoption of the Court's Statute in Rome in July 1998, and affirms its continuing support for the Court's work in ending impunity by ensuring that individual criminal responsibility is enforced through the highest judicial standards.

Statement of qualifications

In accordance with article 36 of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court and resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6 of the Assembly of States Parties relating to the procedure for the nomination and election of judges of the International Criminal Court, the Philippine Government has the honor to transmit the following nomination statement on the candidature of Dr. Raul C. Pangalangan.

1. Dr. Raul C. Pangalangan fulfills the requirements under article 36.3(a) of the Statute. He is a person of high moral character, impartiality and integrity, and possesses the qualifications required by the Republic of the Philippines for appointment to the highest judicial offices.
2. Dr. Pangalangan fulfills the requirements of article 36.3(b)(i) and (ii) of the Statute. He has established competence in criminal law and procedure, and the necessary relevant experience as a Member of the Philippine Bar since 1984. He has also established competence in international law, especially in international humanitarian law and international human rights law.

He was educated at the Harvard Law School, where he received his Doctoral of Juridical Science in 1990 (winning the Charles Sumner Prize for best dissertation relating to international peace) and his Master of Laws in 1986 (winning the John Laylin Prize for best thesis in international law). He received the Diplôme of The Hague Academy of International Law in 1987. He received his LL.B. and his A.B. cum laude (Political Science) from the University of the Philippines.

3. He is a recognized expert in international law and constitutional law. He is a Professor of Law at the University of the Philippines' College of Law where he has taught since 1984, and served as its Law Dean (1999-2005). He is also in the faculty of the Philippine Judicial Academy, the national training institute for Filipino judges. He has been a Member of the Philippine Bar since 1984, and has represented parties before various courts in the Philippines, including the Philippine Supreme Court.
4. In relation to article 36.3(c) of the Statute, Dr. Pangalangan has excellent command of the English language, having taken his university and law studies entirely in that language, both in the Philippines and in the United States.
5. In fulfillment of article 36.5 of the Statute, Dr. Pangalangan is being nominated under List B.

In relation to articles 36.7 and 36.8(ii) of the Statute, Dr. Pangalangan is a national of the Philippines and does not possess the nationality of any other State. He is male (article 36.8(iii)). Philippine law derives from both the civil law and the common law systems (article 36.8(i)).

6. Dr. Pangalangan has legal experience and expertise relevant to the work of the Court, as shown by the following:
 - (a) He was a Philippine Delegate to the 1998 Rome Conference that drafted the ICC Statute, and for the next decade co-chaired the Philippine Coalition that successfully gained the country's ratification of the Rome Statute. He is a contributing author to the Commentary on the Rome Statue of the International Criminal Court (Otto Triffterer, ed.).

- (b) He has taught international law at the Harvard Law School as Visiting Professor and has lectured at The Hague Academy of International Law for both its 2008 annual session at The Hague and its External Programmes in Asia. He has been Visiting Professor at the universities of Melbourne, Hong Kong, and Puerto Rico, and has lectured at the Irish Centre for Human Rights and the Thessaloniki Institute of International Public Law, and before the American and Japanese international law societies. For the Hague External Programme, he lectured on International Criminal Tribunals in Asia.
- (c) He has been recognized by his academic and professional peers. He sits in the governing council of the Asian Society of International Law and currently co-chairs its Research and Planning Committee. Until 2014, he sat in the Executive Council of the International Association of Constitutional Law. He sits in the boards of the Asian Journal of International Law, Australian Journal of Asian Law (Melbourne University), The Third World and International Law (Osgoode Hall Law School, Canada), Ius Gentium (University of Baltimore School of Law), and Journal of East Asia and International Law (Yijun Institute of International Law, Seoul, Korea).
- (d) He has also lectured many Asian countries to promote IHL for the International Committee of the Red Cross, and has participated in the ICRC study on IHL in customary international law.
- (e) He currently chairs Bantay Katarungan (Sentinels of Justice), a public interest group that monitors anti-corruption measures and files test cases before the courts. He is a nationally recognized public intellectual, and wrote an opinion column to educate the public on legal issues (2004-12) in the Philippine Daily Inquirer, the nation's largest newspaper, of which he is currently the Publisher.
- (f) He has appeared as counsel before the Philippine Supreme Court to strike down illegal arrests carried under a state of national emergency and to enforce domestically the Philippines' international obligations on tobacco control. The Supreme Court has recognized his expertise and designated him amicus counsel on important constitutional issues, most recently, on the constitutionality of the Japan-Philippines Economic Partnership Agreement. He had earlier served as General Counsel of his University (1990-92), handling litigation, advising and drafting work for the country's national university, its President and Board of Regents.
- (g) He served as Executive Secretary of the Administrative Tribunal (1992-2006) of the Asian Development Bank, the regional multilateral lending institution for Asia, and in that capacity worked with respected international law jurists from inter alia, the United Kingdom, France, Finland and Japan.
