ELECTION OF THE PROSECUTOR: DECLARATION

(If any of these statements are not true, please give details)

I, Morris Azuma Anyah, do solemnly declare that:

1. No aspect of my conduct while serving as a judge, a prosecutor, a lawyer, a scholar or in any other relevant capacity has been the subject of formal censure or other adverse disciplinary finding.
2. I have never, by reason of unethical or unprofessional conduct, been disqualified from involvement in a case or otherwise barred from acting in a professional capacity.
3. I have always maintained complete independence from outside influence in the discharge of my professional duties.
4. I respect the need to promote diversity and inclusiveness on the grounds, for instance, of race, colour, gender, religion, disability, age and sexual orientation.
5. There has never been an investigation or a finding against me of harassment, sexual harassment or gender-based violence, either work-related or otherwise.
6. I have never been declared bankrupt nor had a finding against me for financial impropriety or an inability to pay my debts.
7. There are no pending or past criminal, administrative or civil proceedings against me.
8. I am fluent in at least one of the working languages of the Court and able to speak in public hearings or meetings and to draft my own documents and submissions.
9. I hereby acknowledge that this declaration will be made public.

ELECTION OF THE PROSECUTOR DECLARATION

I, Morris Azuma Anyah, do solemnly declare that:

In relation to issue number 7 of my Declaration dated 12 December 2020, I wish to make it known that I have a pending citation for driving over the speed limit, but it is considered a “traffic” violation as opposed to a “criminal” offence.
