

RECOMMENDATION

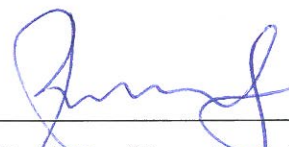

As members of the Hungarian National Group of the Permanent Court of Arbitration we recommend Professor Péter Kovács to be the Hungarian candidate for the election of judges of the International Criminal Court for the period 2015-2024.

Professor Kovács is an excellent international law practitioner with established competence in relevant areas of international law. He has gathered extensive judicial experience in his various professional legal capacities. Presently, he is the presiding judge of the 1st Chamber of the Hungarian Constitutional Court. Next to his high moral character, impartiality and integrity and his fluency in both working languages of the Court, he fully meets the requirements set out in Article 36, paragraph 3 (b) (ii) of the Rome Statute and stands as a candidate at the forthcoming election.
