

Reference: ASP/2011/126

The Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties presents its compliments to States Parties and, on behalf of the President of the Assembly, has the honour to refer to its notes verbales ICC-ASP/10/S/06, ICC-ASP/10/S/59, ASP/2011/088, ASP/10/114 and ICC-ASP/10/S/79 dated 7 February, 5 September, 21 September, 3 October and 19 October 2011 respectively, as well as to resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6 entitled “Procedure for the nomination and election of judges, the Prosecutor and Deputy Prosecutors of the International Criminal Court”, adopted by the Assembly of States Parties on 10 September 2004. Paragraph 28 thereof provides that “[t]he procedure for the nomination of judges shall apply mutatis mutandis to the nomination of the Prosecutor.”

The Secretariat wishes to recall that, at the ninth session of the Assembly, the Bureau established a Search Committee for the position of the Prosecutor of the International Criminal Court, the terms of reference of which are set out in document ICC-ASP/9/INF.2.¹ It is understood that this process is without prejudice to the relevant provisions of the Rome Statute and does not prevent any State Party from submitting a formal nomination. However, given that the Search Committee was established with a view to facilitating the implementation of paragraph 33 of resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6, States Parties are encouraged to respect this process with a view to arriving at a consensus candidate, ideally both for nomination and election.

In accordance with its terms of reference, the Search Committee submitted its final report to the Bureau of the Assembly of States Parties on 22 October 2011, after having conducted interviews of candidates. The report of the Search Committee presented a shortlist of four suitable candidates proposed to the Bureau and the Assembly for further consideration, with a view to nominate a consensus candidate through an informal consultation process, sufficiently in advance of the tenth session of the Assembly. Formal nominations are therefore neither anticipated nor encouraged before the end of this informal consultation process.

Under the terms of the resolution, the Secretariat wishes to inform States Parties that, as at 28 October 2011, no formal nominations had been received. Since no candidate has been presented, and pursuant to paragraph 33 of the abovementioned resolution, the nomination period for the Prosecutor has therefore been extended for a period of two weeks, to Friday, 11 November 2011, before midnight (Central European time). Further information is available on the website of the Court (www.icc-cpi.int), under “Assembly of States Parties”.
