

ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS OF JUDGES
DECLARATION

(If one or more of these declarations are inaccurate, please provide additional information)

I, the undersigned, Nicolas Guillou, solemnly declare that:

1. Whilst exercising my functions as judge, prosecutor, lawyer, university lecturer or in any other relevant capacity, no aspect of my conduct has ever been subject to any disciplinary findings against me.
2. I have never had to recuse myself from a case or been prevented from acting in a professional capacity on the grounds of unethical or unprofessional conduct.
3. In exercising my professional functions, I have always remained completely independent from any external influences.
4. I respect the need to promote diversity and inclusiveness based, for example, on race, colour, sex, religion, disability, age and sexual orientation.
5. I have never been the subject of a finding of sexual harassment or gender-based violence, either at work or elsewhere.
6. I have never been declared bankrupt or been the subject of a finding of financial irregularities or an inability to pay my debts.
7. There are no criminal proceedings against me and never have been.
8. I have a command of at least one of the working languages of the Court and I can express myself in that language at public hearings and draft my own decisions.
9. I hereby opt to make this declaration public.
