

Assembly of States PartiesDistr.: General
4 November 2024

Original: English

Twenty-third session

The Hague, 2-7 December 2024

Election of members of the Committee on Budget and Finance*Note by the Secretariat

1. On 6 March 2024, the Bureau of the Assembly of States Parties decided that the nomination period for candidates for the election of five members of the Committee on Budget and Finance to be held at the twenty-third session of the Assembly pursuant to resolution ICC-ASP/22/Res.8 would run from 3 June to 25 August 2024 (Central European Time).

2. The Committee on Budget and Finance was established by the Assembly in its resolution ICC-ASP/1/Res.4 of 3 September 2002. The terms of reference of the Committee are set out in the annex to the resolution. Paragraph 2 of the annex to that resolution was amended by the Assembly by resolution ICC-ASP/2/Res.5 of 12 September 2003.

3. The procedure for the nomination and election of the members of the Committee was set out by the Assembly in its resolution ICC-ASP/1/Res.5. Paragraph 15 of that resolution was amended by resolution ICC-ASP/2/Res.4 of 12 September 2003. In accordance with paragraph 6 of resolution ICC-ASP/1/Res.5, each nomination shall specify how the candidate fulfils the requirements laid down in paragraph 2 of resolution ICC-ASP/1/Res.4, i.e. to be an expert of recognized standing and experience in financial matters at the international level from a State Party.

4. The distribution of seats among the regional groups pursuant to paragraph 8 of resolution ICC-ASP/8/Res.8 is as follows:

- African States, four seats;
- Asia-Pacific States, three seats;
- Eastern European States, three seats;
- Group of Latin American and Caribbean States, three seats; and Western European and Other States, four seats.

5. The five new members would belong to the following regional groups:

- (a) African States, two seats;
- (b) Asia-Pacific States, one seat;
- (c) Eastern European States, one seat;
- (d) Latin American and Caribbean States, one seat.

5. As required by paragraph 9 of resolution ICC-ASP/1/Res.5, every effort shall be made to elect the members of the Committee by consensus, on the basis of a recommendation by the Bureau. Under paragraph 10, in the absence of a consensus, the election shall be a matter of substance, and subject to the requirements of article 112, paragraph 7 (a), of the Rome Statute, which provides as follows:

“7. Each State Party shall have one vote. Every effort shall be made to reach decisions by consensus in the Assembly and in the Bureau. If consensus cannot be reached, except as otherwise provided in the Statute:

(a) Decisions on matters of substance must be approved by a two-thirds majority of those present and voting provided that an absolute majority of States Parties constitutes the quorum for voting.”

6. In accordance with paragraph 11 of resolution ICC-ASP/1/Res.5, the election shall be by secret ballot. However, this requirement may be dispensed with if the number of candidates corresponds to the number of seats to be filled or in respect of candidates endorsed by the respective regional groups, unless a delegation specifically requests a vote on a given election.

7. Under paragraph 12 of the resolution, the persons elected shall be those candidates from each regional group who obtained the highest number of votes and a two-thirds majority of States Parties present and voting, provided that an absolute majority of the States Parties constitutes the quorum for voting.

8. On the closing date of the nomination period, 25 August 2023, the number of candidates was less than the number of seats and not all regional groups had submitted a candidate. The President, pursuant to resolution ICC-ASP/1/Res.5, extended the nomination period for two weeks, until 8 September 2024. Since the number of candidates remained less than the number of seats and not all regional groups had submitted a candidate, the President extended the nomination period for a period of two weeks on two respective occasions, until 22 September and 6 October 2024 (Central European Time).

9. At the end of the extended nomination periods, four candidatures had been received.

10. Of the four nominations, two were submitted by the group of African States, one by the group of Eastern European States and one by the Group of Latin American and Caribbean States.

11. In accordance with paragraph 7 of resolution ICC-ASP/1/Res.5, a list in the English alphabetical order of all persons nominated, with accompanying documents, is contained in the annex to the present note.

Note verbale

The Embassy of the Republic of Korea to the Kingdom of the Netherlands presents its compliments to the Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties to the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court and, with reference to the Secretariat's note verbale ICC-ASP/23/SP/07, dated 28 March 2024, has the honour to inform the Secretariat that the Government of the Republic of Korea has decided to nominate Mr. Kim Jae Woo for election to the Committee on Budget and Finance of the International Criminal Court, at the elections to be held during the twenty-third session of the Assembly of States Parties.

The Embassy has further the honour to enclose Mr. Kim Jae Woo's statement of qualifications and curriculum vitae herein.

Statement of qualifications

Statement submitted in accordance with paragraph 6 of the resolution ICC-ASP/1/Res.5, as amended by ICC-ASP/2/Res.4, adopted by the Assembly of States Parties, relating to the procedure for the nomination and election of the members of the Committee on Budget and Finance of the International Criminal Court (CBF)

Professional background and experience

Mr. Kim Jae Woo, who has served as a diplomat for the Republic of Korea at various posts since 1997, meets the requirements set out in the terms of reference of the CBF. Throughout his career, Mr. Kim has acted with the integrity and high standing required of a diplomat. He has extensive experience in the administration of international organizations, including budgetary and financial matters, and has wide-ranging diplomatic expertise. He is currently serving as the International Affairs Coordinator at the Supreme Court of Korea on a temporary assignment and is scheduled to return to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in January 2025.

Experience in International Organizations

Mr. Kim has extensive experience in matters related to international organizations. His responsibilities have covered not only political affairs, but also governance issues, within these organizations. As a Director and Policy Officer within the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, he has actively engaged in budgetary and financial discussions and played a supervisory role in various international organizations, including:

Legal Affairs: ICC, ICJ, PCA, ICTY, HCCH

- Disarmament: Organisation for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons (OPCW), Preparatory Commission for Comprehensive Nuclear Test Ban Treaty Organizations
- Culture and Tourism: UNESCO, World Tourism Organization
- Aviation: International Civil Aviation Organization (ICAO)
- Environment: Secretariat of the Convention on Biological Diversity (CBD)

Notably, Mr. Kim served as an alternate on the Finance Committee of the ICAO Council from 2019 to 2023, a role of which is similar to that of the CBF. Additionally, he led the delegation of the Republic of Korea at the second extraordinary meeting of the Conference of the Parties to the CBD in October 2020, which was convened to consider and adopt the interim budget for the programme of work of the CBD Secretariat for 2021.

Understanding of the ICC

Mr. Kim has a comprehensive understanding of the ICC and its operations. His familiarity with the ICC's complex structure will be an asset in fulfilling his duties on the CBF.

Communication and leadership skills

Mr. Kim possesses outstanding communication skills and a strong ability to lead and facilitate negotiations and collaboration.

Language proficiency

In addition to his native Korean, Mr. Kim speaks English fluently and Russian at an intermediate level. He also has basic knowledge of French.

For all the above reasons, the Government of the Republic of Korea is highly confident that Mr. Kim is well-qualified to become a member of the Committee on Budget and Finance of the ICC and will make a valuable contribution with his extensive international diplomatic and financial expertise and collegial approach.

Curriculum vitae

Mr. Kim Jae Woo has been a diplomat of the Republic of Korea since 1997 and has carried out responsibilities at various posts, including at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Seoul, diplomatic missions abroad and the Korean Supreme Court. Mr. Kim has extensive experience, including in financial matters, in multilateral affairs and at international organizations. He is currently working as the International Affairs Coordinator at the Supreme Court on a special assignment and is scheduled to return to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in January 2025.

[Original: English]

Note verbale

The Embassy of the Republic of The Gambia to the Kingdom of Belgium and Mission to the European Communities presents its compliments to the Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties and has the honour to acknowledge receipt of the latter's notes verbales referenced ICC-ASP/23/SP/07 and ICC-ASP/23/SP/55 informing of the call for nominations to the Committee on Budget and Finance.

The Embassy wishes to inform that the Government of the Republic of The Gambia has nominate Mr. Mustapha Samateh, Director of Budget, to serve as a Member of the Committee.

In support of this nomination, please find attached Mr. Samateh's motivation statement and curriculum vitae.

Statement of qualifications

I am writing to express my genuine gratitude and enthusiasm for being nominated to serve on the Committee on Budget and Finance of the Assembly of State Parties on behalf of Africa. It is an immense honor to be considered for a role that will significantly contribute to the financial integrity and operational function of the Assembly.

With a strong background in finance, public private partnership, banking and public administration spanning over 15 years, I have dedicated my career to ensuring transparent and efficient budgetary practices in various governmental, private, and government/partnership roles. Throughout my tenure as Director of Budget with the Ministry of Finance and Economic Affairs in The Gambia, I have consistently demonstrated my commitment to fiscal responsibility, strategic financial planning, and the implementation of cost-effective measures. Needless to say, this is not an easy task.

Over the years, I have developed a strong reputation and experience on financial matters ranging from investment and commercial banking, serving as a member of the Administration and Finance Committees of the Economic Community of West African States (ECOWAS) and the African Union (AU). Furthermore, I have spearheaded initiatives that improved budgetary transparency and accountability throughout the Government with the introduction of budgeting procedures which focus on results, i.e.; Performance/Program Based Budgeting.

The Assembly's mission aligns closely with my own professional values of integrity, accountability, and justice. I am particularly drawn to the opportunity to work collaboratively with esteemed colleagues from diverse backgrounds to develop innovative solutions and strategies that will ensure fiscal transparency and accountability. It would be a privilege to contribute to the Assembly's goals.

In sum, I am eager to bring my analytical skills, dedication, and experience to ASP. My broad experiences on financial matters ranging from Central banking, Central government, public private partnerships and Investment and commercial banking has given me a deep understanding of the theory and application of budgets and finance.

Whilst thanking you for considering my nomination. I am looking forward to contributing to the vital work of the Assembly's Committee on Budget and Finance.
