

Resolution ICC-ASP/23/Res.1

Adopted at the 9th plenary meeting, on 6 December 2024, by consensus

ICC-ASP/23/Res.1

Strengthening the International Criminal Court and the Assembly of States Parties

The Assembly of States Parties,

Mindful that each individual State has the responsibility to protect its population from the crime of genocide, war crimes, and crimes against humanity, that the conscience of humanity continues to be deeply shocked by unimaginable atrocities in various parts of the world, and that the need to prevent and the duty to end the most serious crimes of concern to the international community to put an end to the impunity of the perpetrators of such crimes is now widely acknowledged,

Recognizing that the crime of genocide, crimes against humanity, war crimes and the crime of aggression threaten the peace, security and well-being of the world, and affirming that these crimes must not go unpunished,

Convinced that the International Criminal Court (“the Court”) is an essential means of ending impunity for such crimes and preventing their recurrence, of promoting respect for international humanitarian law and human rights, thus contributing to freedom, security, justice and the rule of law, as well as to the prevention of armed conflicts, the preservation of peace and the strengthening of international security and the advancement of post-conflict peacebuilding and reconciliation with a view to achieving sustainable peace, in accordance with the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations,

Convinced also that justice and peace are complementary and mutually reinforce each other, in this regard, encouraging societies facing conflicts to move from war to peace through peaceful solutions,

Recalling the full range of justice and reconciliation mechanisms with restorative measures that are complementary to criminal justice processes, including truth and reconciliation commissions, national reparations programmes and institutional and legal reforms, including guarantees of non-recurrence,

Welcoming the commitments to strengthen efforts to build peaceful, just and inclusive societies for sustainable development, to provide access to justice for all and build effective, accountable and inclusive institutions at all levels, and to uphold human rights and fundamental freedoms, as provided in United Nations General Assembly resolution 79/1 of 22 September 2024,

Convinced that justice and the fight against impunity and holding to account the perpetrators of the most serious crimes of concern to the international community and persons criminally responsible under the Rome Statute are, and must remain, indivisible and that in this regard universal adherence to the Rome Statute is essential,

Welcoming the Court’s central role as the only permanent international criminal court within an evolving system of international criminal justice and the contribution of the Court to guarantee lasting respect for and the enforcement of international justice,

Recalling the primary responsibility of national jurisdictions to investigate and prosecute the most serious crimes of international concern and the increased need for cooperation in ensuring that national legal systems are capable of investigating and prosecuting such crimes,

Reaffirming its commitment to the Rome Statute and its determination that the most serious crimes of concern to the international community as a whole must not go unpunished, and underlining the importance of the willingness and ability of States to genuinely investigate and prosecute such crimes,

Welcoming the efforts and achievements of the Court in bringing those most responsible for the crimes under the Rome Statute to justice and thus to contribute to the prevention of such crimes and noting the jurisprudence of the Court on the issue of complementarity,

Welcoming in this regard relevant contributions from the Court relating to gender-based crimes<sup>1</sup> as well as from States Parties and other relevant actors, and convinced that these initiatives should be an integral part of strategic dialogues and actions to strengthen the Court and national courts in the fight against impunity, while fully respecting their judicial independence,

Recalling that the application of articles 17, 18 and 19 of the Rome Statute concerning the admissibility of cases before the Court is a judicial matter to be determined by the judges of the Court,

Recalling also that greater consideration should be given to how the Court will complete its activities in a situation country,

Recognizing that crimes within the jurisdiction of the Court threaten the peace, security and well-being of the world and, in consequence, that these are values protected by the Rome Statute,

Underscoring its respect for the independence and impartiality of the Court and its commitment to ensuring respect for and the implementation of the Court's judicial decisions and delivering justice to victims equally,

Recalling the statement by the President of the Security Council of 12 February 2013 in which the Council stated its intention to continue fighting impunity, reiterated its previous call regarding the importance of State cooperation with the Court in accordance with the respective obligations of States and expressed its commitment to effective follow-up of Council decisions in this regard,

Recalling also the decision by the Assembly of States Parties ("the Assembly") to establish a representation of the Court at the African Union Headquarters in Addis Ababa, and reiterating that such presence would promote dialogue with the Court and the understanding of its mission within the African Union and among African States, individually and collectively,

Welcoming the Report on the desirability and feasibility of establishing regional representations to promote dialogue, cooperation, complementarity, universality and promotion of the Rome Statute submitted by the Registrar,<sup>2</sup>

Reaffirming the importance of States Parties' cooperation with the Court to the fulfilment of its mandate and gravely concerned by the repeated attempts at intimidation to deter cooperation with the Court and its officials,

Gravely concerned by the malicious cyber activity directed at the Court and its Information Technology Infrastructure in 2023 and welcoming the efforts undertaken by the Court in response to this incident, including the building of resilience and the reduction of vulnerabilities through the development of a comprehensive Security Blueprint for the Court's Future Information Technology Architecture,

Appreciating the invaluable assistance that has been provided by civil society to the Court and gravely concerned by the recent reports of attacks, threats and intimidation directed at some civil society organizations and those cooperating with the Court,

Welcoming the continued efforts undertaken by the Bureau and its working groups to identify ways to strengthen the International Criminal Court and the Rome Statute system through concrete, actionable recommendations aimed at enhancing the performance, efficiency and effectiveness of the Court,

Emphasizing the importance of equitable geographical representation and gender balance in the organs of the Court and, as appropriate, in the work of the Assembly and its subsidiary bodies and emphasizing also the need to promote diversity, and especially the participation of women, in the work of the Assembly and its subsidiary bodies,

Recognizing that victims' rights to equal and effective access to justice, protection and support; adequate and prompt reparation for harm suffered; and access to relevant information concerning violations and redress mechanisms are essential components of justice, emphasizing the importance of effective outreach to victims and affected communities in order to give effect to the unique mandate of the Court towards victims and determined to ensure the effective implementation of victims' rights, which constitute a cornerstone of the Rome Statute system, emphasizing the essential role of the Trust Fund for Victims to help make the Court's justice a reality for victims,

Emphasizing the importance for the Court to conduct its work in both its working languages, as well as in other official languages, if authorized according to Rule 41 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence, which can contribute to ensuring victims' right to justice,

Conscious of the vital role of field operations in the Court's work in situation countries, of the risks faced by personnel of the Court in the field and the importance of stakeholders working together to create suitable conditions for field operations, so noting with appreciation the work carried out by country offices,

Recalling that the Court acts within the constraints of an annual programme budget approved by the Assembly,

1. Reconfirms its unwavering support for the Court as an independent and impartial judicial institution, reiterates its commitment to uphold and defend the principles and values enshrined in the Rome Statute and to preserve its integrity undeterred by any threats or measures against the Court, its officials and those cooperating with it, and renews its resolve to stand united against impunity;
2. Underlines that the Court, its officials and staff shall be able to carry out their mandate and professional duties without intimidation; and condemns any threats, attacks, incitement or interference thereto, including any attempt to implement sanctions or measures of a similar effect, against the Court, its personnel or those cooperating with it;
3. Takes note of the Statement of the Office of the Prosecutor of 3 May 2024 and the Statement by the Presidency of the ASP of 17 May 2024 and is gravely concerned by any attempts to retaliate against an official of the Court on account of duties performed by that or another official and any attempts to impede, intimidate or corruptly influence an official of the Court for the purpose of forcing or persuading the official not to perform, or to perform improperly, his or her duties, and recalls that such threats may constitute an offence against the administration of justice under article 70 of the Rome Statute;
4. Reaffirms its support for the consistent implementation of the Court's mandate across the situations and cases under its jurisdiction in the interests of justice and the victims' right of access to justice, and stresses the need for sustainable resources for all situations and cases as well as cooperation with the Court to that end;

A. Universality of the Rome Statute

5. Welcomes the State that has ratified the Rome Statute since the twenty-second session, invites States not yet parties to the Rome Statute to become parties to the Rome Statute, as amended, as soon as possible and calls upon all States Parties, all international and regional organizations, and civil society to intensify their efforts to promote the universality and full implementation of the Rome Statute;
6. Invites all States Parties not yet parties to the Agreement on the Privileges and Immunities of the International Criminal Court, to become parties to this Agreement;
7. Notes with deep regret the notification of withdrawal from the Rome Statute submitted by a State Party under article 127(1) of the Statute on 17 March 2018 as well as the withdrawal of its instrument of accession by another State on 29 April 2019, and calls upon these States to reconsider these withdrawals;<sup>3</sup>

8. Welcomes with appreciation the continuation by the President of the Assembly of the dialogue on the “Relationship between Africa and the International Criminal Court” initiated by the Bureau during the fifteenth session of the Assembly and invites the Bureau to further widen and deepen this dialogue as needed with all interested State Parties;

9. Welcomes the initiatives undertaken to celebrate 17 July as the Day of International Criminal Justice<sup>4</sup> and recommends that, on the basis of lessons learnt, all relevant stakeholders, together with the Court, continue to engage in preparation of appropriate activities and share information with other stakeholders to that effect through the Secretariat of the Assembly<sup>5</sup> and otherwise;

10. Decides to keep the status of ratifications under review and to monitor developments in the field of implementing legislation, inter alia with a view to facilitating the provision of technical assistance that States Parties to the Rome Statute, or States wishing to become parties thereto, may wish to request from other States Parties or institutions in relevant areas, and calls upon States to annually provide the Secretariat of the Assembly with updated information about actions and activities in support of international justice, as per the Plan of action of the Assembly of States Parties for achieving universality and full implementation of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court (“Plan of Action”);<sup>6</sup>

11. Recalls that the ratification of the Rome Statute must be matched by national implementation of the obligations emanating therefrom, notably through implementing legislation, in particular in the areas of criminal law, criminal procedural law, and international cooperation and judicial assistance with the Court and, in this regard, urges States Parties to the Rome Statute that have not yet done so to adopt such implementing legislation as a priority and encourages the adoption of victims-related provisions, as and when appropriate;

12. Welcomes the report of the Bureau on the Plan of action<sup>7</sup> and notes with appreciation the efforts of the Court’s President, the Office of the Prosecutor, the President of the Assembly, the Assembly, States Parties and civil society to enhance the effectiveness of universality-related efforts and to encourage States to become parties to the Rome Statute, as amended, and to the Agreement on the Privileges and Immunities of the International Criminal Court, as well as relevant efforts undertaken in the framework of the Universal Periodic Review of the Human Rights Council;

13. Recalls rule 42 of the Rules of Procedure of the Assembly of States Parties, and underscores the importance of promoting the universality of the Rome Statute and of strengthening the openness and transparency of the Assembly;

14. Also recalls the processes and initiatives carried out on the occasion of 25th anniversary of the adoption of the Rome Statute and takes note of their outcomes, including the “Siracusa Declaration on ensuring consistent and sustainable support for the International Criminal Court” and the “Ethical Principles for International Criminal Judges”;

B. Agreement on Privileges and Immunities

15. Welcomes the States Parties that have become a party to the Agreement on the Privileges and Immunities of the International Criminal Court and recalls that the Agreement and international practice exempt salaries, emoluments and allowances paid by the Court to its officials and staff from national taxation, and in this regard calls upon States Parties, as well as non-States Parties that have not yet done so to become parties to this Agreement as a matter of priority and to take the necessary legislative or other action, pending their ratification or accession, to exempt their nationals employed by the Court from national income taxation with respect to salaries, emoluments and allowances paid to them by the Court, or to grant relief in any other manner from income taxation in respect of such payments to their nationals;

16. Reiterates the obligations of States Parties to respect on their territories such privileges and immunities of the Court as are necessary for the fulfilment of its purposes and appeals to all States which are not party to the Agreement on Privileges and Immunities in which the Court's property and assets are located or through which such property and assets are transported, to protect the property and assets of the Court from search, seizure, requisition and any other form of interference;

C. Cooperation

17. Refers to its resolution ICC-ASP/23/Res.5 on cooperation;

18. Calls upon States Parties to comply with their obligations under the Rome Statute, in particular the obligation to cooperate in accordance with Part 9, and also calls upon States Parties to ensure full and effective cooperation with the Court in accordance with the Rome Statute, in particular in the areas of implementing constitutional and legislative framework, enforcement of Court decisions and execution of arrest warrants;

19. Reaffirms the importance of supporting all those cooperating with the Court, including States and relevant international bodies and entities, in order to secure the ability of the Court to fulfil its critical mandate of holding accountable perpetrators of the most serious crimes of concern to the international community and delivering justice to victims;

20. Calls upon States Parties to continue to express their political and diplomatic support to the Court, recalls the sixty-six recommendations annexed to resolution ICC-ASP/6/Res.2 and encourages States Parties and the Court to consider further measures to enhance their implementation and to strengthen their efforts to ensure full and effective cooperation with the Court;

21. Urges States Parties, in the face of threats or coercive measures as a means of attempting to impede or influence the work of the Court, to give full effect to the relevant provisions of the Rome Statute<sup>8</sup> and, as appropriate, the Agreement on the Privileges and Immunities of the International Criminal Court<sup>9</sup> concerning the privileges and immunities of elected officials, staff of the Court, counsel and persons assisting defence counsel, including their immunity which shall continue to be accorded after the expiry of their terms of office, termination of their employment with the Court or cessation of their functions, and to take any action if deemed necessary by the security or other assessment made by a State Party, in accordance with the existing legal framework, to ensure their security, safety and protection against any undue hindrance created by such coercive measures;

22. Welcomes the Court's Concept Note on protection of former officials against coercive measures, prepared pursuant to paragraph 22 of resolution ICC-ASP/22/Res.3 and its Annex I, as an important platform to facilitate the Court's engagement with States Parties on this subject, as well as underlines the importance of the recommended actions contained therein to protect elected officials against such coercive measures, and the need to adopt such measures in all relevant cases;

23. Reaffirms the incompatibility of the consequences of coercive measures against the Court with States Parties' obligations under the Rome Statute, the Agreement on the Privileges and Immunities of the Court, and the Headquarters Agreement;

24. Welcomes the Court's report and comprehensive presentation on cooperation,<sup>10</sup> which contain disaggregated data over the responses provided by States Parties, including highlighting the main challenges;

25. Underlines the necessity to continue the discussions on practical solutions to improve cooperation between States and the Court with a view to enhancing prospects for the implementation of pending arrest warrants;

26. Recalls that international cooperation and judicial assistance are governed by Part 9 (articles 86-102) of the Rome Statute;

<sup>8</sup> Article 48, paragraphs 2 and 3, of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court.

<sup>9</sup> Article 15, paragraph 1, article 16, paragraph 1 (b) and article 18, paragraph 1 (b), of the Agreement on the Privileges and Immunities of the International Criminal Court.

27. Underlines the necessity to continue the discussions between the co-facilitators on cooperation and the focal points on non-cooperation and the Court;
28. Welcomes the plenary session on cooperation held during the twenty-third session of the Assembly of States Parties which offered an opportunity for an enhanced dialogue between States Parties, the Court and members of civil society on voluntary cooperation, as well as a more technical discussion regarding ways States Parties can strengthen their support for the Court with existing tools, specifically by signing and ratifying the Agreement on the Privileges and Immunities of the Court, and also welcomes the signing of an enforcement of sentences cooperation agreement concluded between Poland and the Court during this Assembly;
29. Underlines the importance of effective procedures and mechanisms that enable States Parties and other States to cooperate with the Court in relation to the identification, tracing and freezing or seizure of proceeds, property and assets as expeditiously as possible, and calls on all States Parties to put in place and further improve effective procedures and mechanisms in this regard, with a view to facilitating cooperation between the Court, States Parties, other States and international organizations;
30. Recalls the importance of the non-legally binding Declaration of Paris on asset recovery annexed to resolution ICC-ASP/16/Res.2 and the existence of the secured digital platform for States Parties to exchange relevant information on cooperation and financial investigations and assets recovery;
31. Also recalls the Procedures relating to non-cooperation adopted by the Assembly in ICC-ASP/10/Res.5 and revised by the Assembly in resolution ICC-ASP/17/Res.5, recognizes with concern the negative impact that the non-execution of Court requests continues to have on the ability of the Court to execute its mandate, and takes note of the past decisions of the Court on non-cooperation;
32. Recalls the Toolkit for the implementation of the informal dimension of the Assembly procedures relating to non-cooperation,<sup>11</sup> which was revised as annex III to ICC-ASP/17/31 and encourages States Parties to make use of it as they see fit in order to improve the implementation of the Assembly procedures relating to non-cooperation;
33. Takes note of the report of the Bureau on non-cooperation,<sup>12</sup> welcomes the efforts of the President of the Assembly in implementing the Assembly procedures relating to non-cooperation and recalls that the President serves ex officio as focal point for his or her region,<sup>13</sup> calls upon all stakeholders, at all levels, to continue assisting the President of the Assembly, including when accomplishing his or her task with the support of the regional focal points for non-cooperation;
34. Takes note of the 24 October 2024 finding on the non-compliance by Mongolia and the 29 November 2024 decision of the Pre-Trial Chamber II in the situation in Ukraine;<sup>14</sup>
35. Urges States Parties to engage in effective consultations with the Court in accordance with Article 97 of the Rome Statute;
36. Decides to include on the agenda of future sessions of the Assembly the consideration of non-cooperation issues arising during the inter-sessional period;
37. Recalls the role of the Assembly of States Parties and the Security Council with respect to non-cooperation as provided for by articles 87, paragraph 5, and 87, paragraph 7, of the Rome Statute, and welcomes the efforts of States Parties to strengthen the relationship between the Court and the Council;
38. Calls upon States Parties to continue their efforts to ensure that the Security Council addresses the communications received from the Court on non-cooperation pursuant to the Rome Statute, encourages the President of the Assembly and the Bureau to continue consulting with the Security Council and also encourages both the Assembly and the Security Council to strengthen their mutual engagement on this matter;

39. Also encourages the authorities in Sudan to effectively cooperate with the Court in accordance with Security Council resolution 1593 (2005), while expressing continued concern about the military conflict that erupted in Sudan on 15 April 2023;

40. Noting the past orders of the Pre-Trial Chamber to the Registrar concerning action to be taken in case of information relating to travel of suspects, urges States to share with the focal points on non-cooperation any information concerning potential or confirmed travel of persons against whom an arrest warrant has been issued;

D. Host State

41. Recognizes the importance of the relationship between the Court and the host State in accordance with the terms of the Headquarters Agreement and notes with appreciation the on-going commitment of the host State to the Court with a view to its more efficient functioning;

E. Relationship with the United Nations

42. Recognizes the need for enhancing the institutional dialogue with the United Nations, including on Security Council referrals and on questions considered by the Security Council and other situations involving the maintenance of international peace and security which are subject to the jurisdiction of the Court;

43. Welcomes the twice-yearly reports of the Prosecutor on the situations referred by the United Nations Security Council pursuant to resolutions 1593 (2005) and 1970 (2011), and noting the Prosecutor's repeated requests for effective Security Council follow-up, recognizes the efforts of some members of the Security Council in this regard, reiterates its deep concern by the on-going lack of effective follow-up despite these efforts, and urges all members of the Security Council to support future such requests;

44. Recognizes that ratification or accession to the Rome Statute by members of the United Nations Security Council enhances joint efforts to combat impunity for the most serious crimes of concern to the international community as a whole;

45. Also recognizes the Security Council's call regarding the importance of State cooperation with the Court and encourages further strengthening of the Security Council's relationship with the Court by:

(a) providing effective follow-up of situations referred by the Council to the Court and on-going political support;

(b) enabling financial support by the United Nations for expenses incurred by the Court due to referrals of the Council;

(c) continued support for the work of the Court through cooperation and assistance by peacekeeping and special political missions mandated by the Council, including by considering extending best practices with respect to the drafting of mandates of peacekeeping operations while respecting their basic principles, and increased engagement between Sanctions Committees and the Court with a view to improving their cooperation and achieving better coordination on matters pertaining to areas of mutual concern;

(d) considering mandating peacekeeping and special political missions to contribute, where appropriate, to the strengthening of national justice systems through training, outreach and other forms of assistance;

(e) enhanced engagement by the Council with Court representatives and on matters related to the Court in various formats; and

(f) institutionalizing Council cooperation with and support for the Court in this regard;

46. Recalls the report of the Court on the status of on-going cooperation with the United Nations, including in the field;<sup>15</sup>

47. Encourages all United Nations Offices, Funds and Programmes to strengthen their cooperation with the Court, and to collaborate effectively with the Office of Legal Affairs as focal point for cooperation between the United Nations system and the Court;

48. Recalls article 4 of the Relationship Agreement between the Court and the United Nations, and stresses the continuing need to ensure the ability of the Court to fully exercise its capacity of Observer to the United Nations and its ability to interact and engage in dialogue with the United Nations, including through its attendance and participation as Observer in the activities of the United Nations General Assembly, and through the Court's officials' regular visits to the United Nations to provide briefings and updates on its activities;

49. Commends the important work of the New York Liaison Office of the Court, reiterates its full support for the Office and stresses the importance of the continued and further strengthening of the implementation of its functions in accordance with ICC-ASP/4/6, paragraphs 2, 3 and 4;

50. Calls upon Bureau members and other States Parties to continue providing States Parties with information about their efforts at the United Nations, and in particular at the Security Council, notably through regular briefings provided by the designated State Party member of the Security Council, as well as in any other international or regional fora to promote the fight against impunity;

51. Welcomes the presentation of the annual report of the Court to the General Assembly of the United Nations<sup>16</sup> and in particular its focus on the relationship between the Court and the United Nations, also welcomes the annual adoption of the resolution concerning the Court by the General Assembly, encourages States Parties to support the resolution and also encourages them to continue their constructive engagement with United Nations Member States to further strengthen this resolution;

52. Notes with concern that, to date, expenses incurred by the Court due to referrals by the Security Council continue to be borne exclusively by States Parties and notes that, to date, the approved budget allocated so far within the Court in relation to the referrals made by the Security Council amounts to approximately €98.1 million;<sup>17</sup>

53. Stresses that, if the United Nations is unable to provide funds for the Court to cover the expenses incurred due to referrals by the Security Council, this will, among other factors, continue to exacerbate resource pressure on the Court;

54. Urges States Parties to pursue, within the General Assembly of the United Nations, the implementation of article 115, paragraph (b), of the Rome Statute, also taking into account that article 13, paragraph 1, of the Relationship Agreement between the Court and the United Nations states that the conditions under which any funds may be provided to the Court by a decision of the General Assembly shall be subject to separate arrangements;

55. Notes that all cooperation received by the Court from the United Nations is provided strictly on a reimbursable basis;

F. Relationships with other international organizations and bodies

56. Welcomes the efforts undertaken by various regional and other international organizations to support the Court in the fulfilment of its mandate, as well as efforts of the Court to engage with various regional bodies and entities;

57. Recalls the memoranda of understanding and agreements on cooperation concluded by the Court with regional and other international organizations;

58. Emphasizes ongoing efforts aimed at intensifying dialogue with the African Union and to strengthen the relationship between the Court and the African Union and welcomes the Court's further regular engagement in Addis Ababa with the African Union and diplomatic missions in anticipation of establishing its liaison office, recognizes the engagement of the President of the Assembly with officials of the African Union in Addis Ababa and calls upon all relevant stakeholders to support strengthening the relationship between the Court and the African Union;

59. Encourages the Court to continue efforts to enable a frank and constructive dialogue between the Court and the African States Parties to the Rome Statute as a key measure to strengthen relations between the Court and its African partners and address challenges within the context of this relationship;

60. Welcomes the efforts to further the presence of the Court at meetings of regional organizations;

61. Recalls the obligation of the High Contracting Parties to undertake to respect and ensure respect for the Geneva Conventions and also recalls the contribution that the International Humanitarian Fact-finding Commission, established by article 90 of the Additional Protocol I to the 1949 Geneva Convention, could make in ascertaining facts related to alleged violations of international humanitarian law and facilitating, where appropriate, the prosecution of war crimes, both at the national level and before the Court;

G. Activities of the Court

62. Takes note of the latest report on the activities of the Court to the Assembly;<sup>18</sup>

63. Notes with satisfaction the fact that, owing not least to the dedication of its staff, considerable progress continues to be made in the Court's activities, including its preliminary examinations, investigations and judicial proceedings in various situations which either States Parties or the United Nations Security Council<sup>19</sup> referred to the Court or which the Prosecutor initiated proprio motu;

64. Recalls its invitation to the Court to continue to take note of best practices of other relevant international and national organizations, tribunals and mechanisms, including those gained by national institutions that have already investigated and prosecuted crimes that fall within the Court's jurisdiction, in solving challenges similar to those encountered by the Court, while reiterating its respect for the independence of the Court;

65. Recognizes the importance of achieving accountability for all Rome Statute crimes while recalling that there is no hierarchy between them, and encourages the Bureau to engage with interested States Parties and other relevant actors to identify ways to support the Court's efforts in this regard with respect to gender-based crimes that amount to Rome Statute crimes, with a view to reporting thereon to the twenty-fourth session of the Assembly;

66. Notes with appreciation the efforts undertaken by the Office of the Prosecutor to achieve the efficiency and transparency of its preliminary examinations, investigations and prosecutions;

67. Welcomes the adoption of the Office of the Prosecutor's Policy Papers on Complementarity and Cooperation and the Policy Paper on Slavery Crimes and notes the continuous review by the Prosecutor of the various policy papers of the Office, with a view to consolidating and enhancing them where necessary;

68. Welcomes the continued implementation by the Office of the Prosecutor of its Policy Papers on Case Selection and Prioritization, on Children, on Gender-Based Crimes, and on Gender Persecution and, in this regard, stresses the importance of the effective investigation and prosecution of sexual and gender-based crimes and crimes against children by the Court and by national courts, in order to end impunity for perpetrators of such crimes, and calls upon States Parties to consider the Policy Papers to strengthen the investigation and prosecution of these crimes domestically;

69. Expresses its appreciation to the Office of the Prosecutor for consulting with States Parties and other stakeholders before the issuance of its policies and strategies and welcomes the contributions made by States Parties in this regard;

70. Welcomes the efforts undertaken by the Court to implement the One-Court principle, and to coordinate its activities among its organs at all levels, including through the implementation of measures to increase clarity on the responsibility of different organs, while respecting the independence of the judges and the Prosecutor and the neutrality of the Registry and encourages the Court to undertake all necessary efforts to fully implement the One-Court principle, inter alia with a view to ensuring full transparency, good governance, efficient use of financial resources and sound management;

71. Notes the Strategic Plans of the Court, the Office of the Prosecutor, the Registry and the Trust Fund for Victims for the period 2023-2025 and also notes that the Strategic Plans benefit from the views and comments States Parties make in the dialogue with the Court, the Office of the Prosecutor, the Registry and the Trust Fund for Victims;

72. Notes with appreciation the continued efforts undertaken by the Registrar to mitigate the risks faced by the Court in relation to its field offices and to enhance the Court's field operations with a view to increasing their efficiency and visibility and encourages the Court to continue to optimize its field offices and activities in close cooperation with the United Nations, as appropriate, in order to ensure the Court's continued relevance and impact in States in which it carries out its work;

73. Welcomes the on-going efforts undertaken by the Court to improve its use of alternative sources of information and evidence as well as its capacities to this end, including in the field of financial investigations, encourages the Court to continue these efforts and notes the importance of providing the Court with the appropriate means for this purpose;

74. Recognizes the important work done by the field-based staff of the Court in difficult and complex environments and expresses its appreciation for their dedication to the mission of the Court;

75. Emphasizes the need for the Court to continue to improve and adapt outreach activities with a view to further developing and implementing effectively and efficiently the Strategic Plan for Outreach<sup>20</sup> in affected countries, including, where appropriate, by early outreach from the outset of the Court's involvement, including during the preliminary examination stage;

76. Recalls that the issues of public information and communication about the Court, the Trust Fund for Victims and their activities constitute a shared responsibility of the Court and States Parties, while acknowledging the significant contribution of other stakeholders to developing a coordinated and comprehensive approach;

H. Elections

77. Stresses the importance of nominating and electing as judges qualified, competent and experienced persons of the highest quality and of high moral character, impartiality and integrity who possess the qualifications required in their respective States for appointment to the highest judicial offices, in accordance with article 36 of the Rome Statute, as well as the importance of elected judges who have made their solemn undertaking being available to take up their full-time service when the Court's workload so requires, and for this purpose, encourages States Parties to conduct thorough and transparent processes to identify the best candidates;

78. Recalls that the Advisory Committee on Nomination of Judges is mandated to facilitate that the highest-qualified individuals are elected as judges of the International Criminal Court in the manner foreseen in its Terms of Reference;

79. Also recalls paragraph 6 of resolution ICC-ASP/18/Res.4 encouraging States Parties to submit information and commentary on their own existing or prospective nomination and selection procedures to the Secretariat of the Assembly and requests those States Parties that have not yet done so to submit the information no later than 14 March 2025, to facilitate the work of the Advisory Committee;

80. Recalls the adoption of the due diligence procedure for elected officials of the International Criminal Court ("due diligence procedure")<sup>21</sup>, requests the Bureau to consider any amendments to other mandates and procedures which may be necessary to implement the due diligence procedure in the future and emphasizes that the due diligence procedure will need to be taken into account in any future decisions on the process for the election of the Judges, Prosecutor, Deputy Prosecutor(s), Registrar and Deputy Registrar;

81. Decides to adopt the amendment to paragraph 7 bis of resolution ICC-ASP/18/Res.4 as amended by ICC-ASP/21/Res.2, contained in annex II to the present resolution;

I. Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties

82. Recognizes the important work done by the Secretariat of the Assembly (“the Secretariat”), reiterates that the relations between the Secretariat and the different organs of the Court shall be governed by principles of cooperation and of sharing and pooling of resources and services, as set out in the annex to resolution ICC-ASP/2/Res.3, and welcomes the fact that the Director of the Secretariat participates in the meetings of the Coordination Council when matters of mutual concern are considered;

84. Further recalls the report of the Bureau on the assessment of the Secretariat and the recommendations contained therein;<sup>23</sup>

85. Further recalls that there is only one Secretariat established to provide the Assembly, its Bureau and subsidiary bodies with substantive servicing as well as administrative and technical assistance in the discharge of their responsibilities;

86. Also recalls that, further to the discussions held under the Budget Management Oversight topic, States Parties agreed with the last part of recommendation 4 of the former External Auditor, “to suppress the Executive Secretariat, in order to restore the principle of subsidiarity of the governance oversight organs towards the Assembly”;<sup>24</sup>

87. Decides that the overall responsibility to ensure the provision of substantive and technical support to the Committee on Budget and Finance, as well as to the Audit Committee, falls upon the Director of the Secretariat, who is entrusted with making the most efficient use of all the resources of Major Programme IV in accordance with the principles of effective financial administration and economy, and notes that all the staff of the Secretariat should therefore report to the Director of the Secretariat;

88. Endorses the recommendations made by the Independent Oversight Mechanism in its Evaluation of the Secretariat and decides that in the first trimester of 2025, the Bureau should proceed with the implementation of the recommendation made by the Independent Oversight Mechanism to redesign the Secretariat along functional lines, with the assistance of the Human Resources Section of the Court, and to undertake, as appropriate, a review of classifications of positions in the Secretariat;

89. Also decides that during this transitional period, the P-5 post which was established in December 2012,<sup>25</sup> will report to the Director of the Secretariat;

J. Counsel

90. Notes the important work of independent representative bodies of counsel or legal associations, including any international legal association relevant to rule 20, sub-rule 3, of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence;

91. Takes note of the report on the constitution and activities of the International Criminal Court Bar Association;<sup>26</sup>

92. Invites the International Criminal Court Bar Association to report to the Assembly, through the Bureau, on its activities in advance of the twenty fourth session;

<sup>25</sup> Report of the Committee on Budget and Finance on the work of its seventeenth session (ICC-ASP/10/15), para. 122.

93. Notes the need to improve gender balance and equitable geographical representation on the list of counsel and thus continues to encourage applications to the list of counsel established as required under rule 21, sub-rule 2, of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence with a particular view to ensuring equitable geographical representation and gender balance, as well as legal expertise on specific issues such as violence against women or children, as appropriate;

K. Legal aid

94. Notes that it is the responsibility of the Court to present proposals to the Assembly for reform of the legal aid policy and calls on the Court to continuously consult with States Parties and other relevant stakeholders using existing structures in the course of drawing up these proposals;

95. Recalls the commitment of the Court and its States Parties to ensuring equality of arms in proceedings before the Court;

L. Study Group on Governance

96. Welcomes the continued structured dialogue between States Parties and the Court with a view to strengthening the institutional framework of the Rome Statute system and enhancing the efficiency and effectiveness of the Court while fully preserving its judicial independence;

97. Takes note of the Bureau's report on the Study Group on Governance;<sup>27</sup>

99. Takes note of the final report of the Review Mechanism submitted pursuant to resolution ICC-ASP/22/Res.6, including the Matrix on progress in the assessment of the Independent Expert Review recommendations,<sup>29</sup> and notes that the Study Group will continue to consider recommendations and those issues that fall within its mandate;

M. Proceedings of the Court

100. Emphasizes that the effectiveness of proceedings of the Court is essential to the rights of victims and those of the accused, the credibility and authority of the institution and the promotion of the universality of the Rome Statute, as well as the best possible use of the Court's resources;

101. Welcomes the Court's efforts to enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of proceedings, as well as the efforts on the part of States Parties and civil society in this regard, and emphasizes the importance of continued dialogue on this matter, as well as the shared responsibility of the Court and States Parties in this regard;

102. Takes note of the eighth edition of the Chambers Practice Manual amended by the Judges on 21 October 2024, which covers issues relating to various stages of the proceedings and, with due regard for the need of efficiency, contains certain time limits for judgments of Trial Chambers and the Appeals Chambers and notes in this regard the time limits introduced in 2019, any extension of which must be limited to exceptional circumstances and be explained in detail in a public decision;

N. Working methods review

103. Recognizes the benefits of rationalizing the working methods of the subsidiary bodies of the Bureau and the Assembly in order to cope with an increasing workload;

<sup>28</sup> Established in resolution ICC-ASP/9/Res.2 and extended in resolutions ICC-ASP/10/Res.5, ICC-ASP/11/Res.8, ICC-ASP/12/Res.8, ICC-ASP/13/Res.5, ICC-ASP/14/Res.4, ICC-ASP/15/Res.5, ICC-ASP/16/Res.6, ICC-ASP/17/Res.5, ICC-ASP/18/Res.6, ICC-ASP/19/Res.6, ICC-ASP/20/Res.5, ICC-ASP/21/Res.2 and ICC-ASP/22/Res.3.

104. Welcomes the steps already undertaken by the Bureau for the improvement of the working methods and governance of the Bureau and the Assembly, decides to continue these efforts, and to that effect:

(a) stresses the need for the full implementation of the revised general roadmap for facilitations contained in annex II of resolution ICC-ASP/15/Res.5;

(b) calls on facilitations of the Bureau to begin their work during the intersessional period as early as possible during the first half of the year, as appropriate;

(c) welcomes the holding of Bureau meetings both in New York and in The Hague;

(d) acknowledges the importance of ensuring that the agenda of the Assembly allows sufficient time for substantive discussions;

(e) recognizes the importance of exchange of information as well as mutual consultations between the New York Working Group and The Hague Working Group on matters of joint concern with a view to enhancing efficiency while avoiding duplication of efforts;

(f) encourages all States Parties to use the Extranet designed for the work of the subsidiary bodies of the Bureau and the Assembly containing all necessary documentation on the work in progress; and

(g) also encourages States Parties to deliver statements no longer than five minutes and to submit written statements instead of oral ones;

105. Recognizes the importance of the work carried out by the facilitators and the focal points;

106. Recalls the representative geographical character of the Bureau and encourages Bureau members to strengthen their communication with States Parties of their respective regional groups to inform the discussion of the Bureau, including by establishing appropriate mechanisms for providing regular updates on the work of the Bureau;

107. Reiterates that the Bureau shall have a representative character in its composition, taking into account, in particular, equitable geographical distribution and the adequate representation of the principal legal systems of the world, and requests the Bureau to remain seized of the matter;

108. Welcomes the report of the Bureau on the scheduling of Assembly sessions and the recommendations therein,<sup>30</sup> and decides to revert to the question at an appropriate time, preferably ahead of the twenty-fifth session of the Assembly;

109. Decides to hold the Assembly sessions alternately two years at the seat of the Court and one year at the Headquarters of the United Nations, when elections are held, as a rule with a length of up to six days, preferably over one calendar week, unless judicial or prosecutorial elections are scheduled, and stresses the need for effective, efficient, concise and productive Assembly sessions, with broadest participation of States Parties and effective use of resources, as well as the need for avoiding duplication with a division of labour between New York and The Hague;

O. Victims and affected communities, reparations and Trust Fund for Victims

110. Reaffirms its resolution ICC-ASP/13/Res.4 on victims and affected communities, reparations and Trust Fund for Victims;

111. Stresses the central importance that the Rome Statute accords to the rights and needs of victims, as victims' right to present and have their views and concerns considered at stages of the proceedings determined to be appropriate by the Court where their personal interests are affected and to protection of their safety, physical and psychological well-being, dignity and privacy, under article 68 of the Rome Statute, as well as their right to claim reparations awarded and access to relevant information are essential components of justice and, in this regard, emphasizes the importance of effective outreach to victims and affected communities in order to give effect to the mandate of the Court;

112. Recalls article 75 of the Rome Statute and, in this regard, the reparative justice role of the Court and the Trust Fund, and notes that assistance and reparations to victims may promote reconciliation and contribute to peace-building;

113. Acknowledges the importance of protective measures for victims and witnesses, including considering the best interests, rights and well-being of children and maintaining the physical and psychological welfare of witnesses, particularly victims of sexual and gender-based crimes, for the execution of the Court's mandate, stresses the need for States to conclude agreements with the Court in order to facilitate expeditious international relocation of persons at risk, urges all States to consider concluding such relocation agreements and encourages all States to contribute to the Special Fund for Relocations;

114. Stresses that, since the identification, tracing and freezing or seizure of any assets of the convicted person are indispensable for reparations, it is of paramount importance that all necessary measures are taken to that end, in order for relevant States and relevant entities to provide timely and effective assistance pursuant to articles 75, 93, paragraph 1(k), and 109 of the Rome Statute, and calls upon States Parties to enter into voluntary agreements, arrangements or any other means to this end with the Court, as required;

115. Recalls the Court's previous commitment to review its Revised Strategy in Relation to Victims once a judicial cycle is finished;<sup>31</sup>

116. Renews its appreciation to the Board of Directors and the Secretariat of the Trust Fund for Victims for their continuing commitment towards victims and affected communities and in this regard, notes with appreciation the latest report by the Board of Directors on the activities of the Trust Fund to the Assembly<sup>32</sup> as well as the efforts of the Board of Directors to improve the governance, efficiency and effectiveness of the Trust Fund;

117. Notes the significant increase in the activities of the Trust Fund related to reparations; in particular, also notes that the Trust Fund is continuing implementing the Lubanga and Ntaganda reparation programmes in the Democratic Republic of the Congo and the Al Mahdi reparation programme in Mali;

118. Further notes that in the Al Mahdi case the Trust Fund has completed the delivery of financial compensation as part of the individual reparation awards to 1,685 eligible victims in June 2024 and the Trust Fund has now commenced the final phase of the collective reparations awards which is set to conclude in December 2025;

119. Welcomes the Trust Fund final report on the implementation of the Katanga reparations programme submitted to the Court on 2 December 2024 and the external evaluation report which validates the impact of reparations on individuals and communities and contributes to strengthening the rule of law and notes that the Trust Fund has submitted the draft implementation plan for reparations in the Ongwen case in September 2024;

120. Notes that the Trust Fund is also implementing assistance programmes directly benefitting 23,000 individuals in seven situations of the Court and also notes that the Board of Directors of the Trust Fund has launched a funding appeal for initial consultations to determine the feasibility of starting assistance programmes in nine situations of the Court, where the Trust Fund is not currently active;

121. Calls upon States, international and inter-governmental organizations, individuals, corporations and other entities to make voluntary contributions, in accordance with their financial ability, to the Trust Fund in order to broaden its resource base, improve the predictability of funding and maintain responsiveness to harm suffered by victims as well as to the Court's judicial developments, and renews its appreciation to those that have done so;

122. Invites States Parties to respond to requests of the Trust Fund for earmarked contributions for the purposes of funding specific reparations awards, as well as of replenishing and strengthening the Trust Fund's general reparations reserve, and expresses its appreciation to those that have already done so;

123. Invites States Parties to consider making earmarked voluntary contributions to the Trust Fund for the benefit of victims of sexual and gender-based violence, and expresses its appreciation to those that have already done so;

124. Notes the intention of the Trust Fund to raise voluntary contributions from public and private donations, in order to ensure the implementation of Court-ordered reparations and assistance activities for the benefit of victims in cases and situations before the Court, in particular €2 million for the reparation programme in the Lubanga case, €2 million for the reparation programme in the Ntaganda case, €5 million to start the reparation programme in the Ongwen case and €2 million for other assistance programmes;

P. Recruitment of staff

125. Takes note of the Court's report on Human Resources Management<sup>33</sup> and requests the Court to further strengthen its efforts, in the recruitment of staff, to seek equitable geographical representation with a particular focus on candidates from non-represented and under-represented States Parties, gender balance and the highest standards of efficiency, competency and integrity, as well as to seek expertise on specific issues, including, but not limited to, trauma-related psycho-social needs and violence against women or children, and encourages further progress in this regard;

126. Calls upon the Court to report the outcome of its efforts to seek equitable geographical representation with a particular focus on candidates from non-represented and under-represented States Parties and gender balance to the Assembly at its twenty-fourth session, including, but not limited to, improvements in the recruitment process and annual recruitment data;

127. Welcomes the efforts by the Registry to implement the outcomes of the Workshop on Geographical Representation and Gender Balance (GRGB) held in 2023;

128. Takes note of the continued dialogue between the Court and the Bureau with regard to ensuring equitable geographical representation and gender balance in the recruitment of staff members, and welcomes the report of the Bureau and its recommendations;<sup>34</sup>

129. Urges States Parties to continue to undertake efforts to identify and enlarge pools of potential applicants to the Court's professional positions from States Parties from non- and under-represented regions and countries, including through the financing by the Assembly of the Court's internship and visiting professional programmes, and by States Parties of Junior Professional Officer (JPO) programmes, through targeted outreach initiatives and through the dissemination among relevant national institutions and organizations of the Court's vacancies;

130. Recalls the establishment by the Court of a programme to fund, through voluntary contributions, the placement of interns and visiting professionals from developing regions with a particular focus on candidates from non-represented and under-represented States Parties, welcomes the voluntary contributions received thus far, calls upon States Parties to contribute to this programme, and requests the Court to further devise mechanisms that can ensure in a more sustainable and systematic manner the funding of placements of interns and visiting professionals from developing regions;

131. Recalls the Court-wide, Office of the Prosecutor, Registry and Trust Fund for Victims Strategic Plans for 2023-2025, and their strategic goals to improve the geographical representation and gender balance as one of the Court's priorities;

132. Also recalls the adoption of the Court's first Strategy on Gender Equality and Workplace Culture on 8 December 2022;

Q. Complementarity

133. Recalls the primary responsibility of States to genuinely investigate and prosecute the most serious crimes of international concern and that, to this end, appropriate measures need to be adopted at the national level, and international cooperation and judicial assistance need to be strengthened, in order to ensure that national legal systems are willing and able genuinely to carry out investigations and prosecutions of such crimes;

134. Resolves to continue and strengthen, within the appropriate fora, effective domestic implementation of the Rome Statute, to enhance the capacity of national jurisdictions to prosecute the perpetrators of the most serious crimes of international concern in accordance with internationally recognized fair trial standards, pursuant to the principle of complementarity and stresses that the proper functioning of the principle of complementarity entails that States incorporate the crimes set out in articles 6, 7 and 8 of the Rome Statute as punishable offences under their national laws, to establish jurisdiction for these crimes and to ensure effective enforcement of those laws, and urges States to do so;

135. Takes note of the signing on 14 February 2024 of the Ljubljana-The Hague Convention on international cooperation in the investigation and prosecution of the crime of genocide, crimes against humanity, war crimes and other international crimes, which will facilitate better practical cooperation between States in investigating and prosecuting international crimes and to which all States may become parties;

136. Welcomes efforts by the United Nations, international and regional organizations, States and civil society in mainstreaming capacity-building activities aimed at strengthening national jurisdictions with regard to investigating and prosecuting Rome Statute crimes and strongly encourages additional efforts in this regard by other international and regional organizations, States and civil society;

137. Welcomes the report of the Bureau on complementarity and the recommendations made on future consultations set out therein;<sup>35</sup>

138. Also welcomes the ongoing exchanges with the Office of the Prosecutor in the context of the Office's new Policy on Complementarity and Cooperation, with respect to a range of measures and initiatives intended to support the development of dynamic and two-way relationships between the Office, national authorities and other accountability mechanisms, and, crucially, the victims and survivors of atrocities globally, in order to deliver justice close to the affected communities;

139. Further welcomes the information provided by the Secretariat of the Assembly on the progress in giving effect to its mandate to facilitate the exchange of information between the Court, States Parties and other stakeholders, including international organizations and civil society, aimed at strengthening domestic jurisdictions;

140. Encourages States, international and regional organizations and civil society to submit to the Secretariat information on their complementarity-related activities and welcomes the efforts made by the international community and national authorities, including national capacity-building activities to investigate and prosecute gender-based crimes that may amount to Rome Statute crimes, in particular the continued efforts on the strategic actions to ensure access to justice and to enhance empowerment of victims at national level;

141. Encourages the Court to continue its efforts in the field of complementarity, including through exchange of information between the Court and other relevant actors, while recalling the Court's limited role in strengthening national jurisdictions;

R. Independent Oversight Mechanism

142. Recalls its decision in resolution ICC-ASP/22/Res.3 requesting the Bureau to remain seized of the review of the work and operational mandate of the Independent Oversight Mechanism and to follow up on the recommendations contained in the report of the facilitation, with a view to considering also recommendations of the Independent Expert Review in this regard, and to report thereon to the Assembly at its twenty-fourth session;

143. Welcomes the discussions held during 2024 on the review of the work and operational mandate of the Independent Oversight Mechanism, which is a subsidiary body of the Assembly;

144. Takes note of the Final Report of the Independent Expert Review of the International Criminal Court and the Rome Statute System,<sup>36</sup> in particular its recommendations related to the work and operational mandate of the Independent Oversight Mechanism, which deserves thorough discussions among States Parties and consideration and may call for further revisions of the mandate;

145. Recalls that the revised operational mandate of the Independent Oversight Mechanism applies provisionally until, and without prejudice to, any decision of the Assembly to amend or replace the mandate after its consideration of the report and the ongoing review of the status of implementation of the remaining recommendations of the Independent Expert Review, including amendments emanating from the establishment of the due diligence procedure for elected officials;

146. Welcomes the complementary initiatives undertaken by the Bureau, the Assembly oversight bodies and the Court to try to ensure that the different organs of the Court have streamlined and updated where required, and, to the extent possible, consistent ethics charters and codes of conduct;

147. Reiterates the critical importance of the Independent Oversight Mechanism in carrying out its work in an independent, transparent and impartial manner free from any undue influence;

148. Welcomes the annual report of the Head of the Independent Oversight Mechanism;<sup>37</sup>

149. Reaffirms the importance of the Independent Oversight Mechanism reporting to States Parties on the results of its activities;

150. Emphasizes the importance of adherence to the highest professional and ethics standards by all Court staff and elected officials, acknowledges the essential role played and work done by the Independent Oversight Mechanism, and that the revised operational mandate of the Independent Oversight Mechanism<sup>38</sup> enables it to investigate the alleged conduct of former elected officials and staff both while they were in office and when they separated from service as prescribed in its paragraph 10, takes note of the status report provided by the Office of the Prosecutor, and invites the Court to provide at the earliest opportunity in advance of the twenty-fourth session of the Assembly any relevant update and recommendation on any necessary follow-up action for the Court and/or the Assembly;

151. Welcomes the progress made in formally aligning the regulatory framework of the Court with the operational mandate of the Independent Oversight Mechanism, in particular the Administrative Instruction on Investigation of Unsatisfactory Conduct and the Administrative Instruction on Unsatisfactory Conduct and Disciplinary Proceedings, as well as the Administrative Instruction on Discrimination, Harassment, including Sexual Harassment, and Abuse of Authority, and encourages the Court, with the support of the Independent Oversight Mechanism, as necessary, to continue working to ensure that all relevant documents are updated and aligned with the mandate of the Independent Oversight Mechanism in order to harmonize the applicable rules;

152. Welcomes the draft evaluation policy of the Court presented at the facilitation by the Head of the Independent Oversight Mechanism on 14 October 2024, emphasizes its importance in enhancing the evaluation function and endorses the policy;

S. Programme budget

153. Takes note of the important work done by the Committee on Budget and Finance, which is a subsidiary body of the Assembly, and reaffirms the independence of the members of the Committee;

154. Recalls that, according to its Rules of Procedure,<sup>39</sup> the Committee shall be responsible for the technical examination of any document submitted to the Assembly that contains financial or budgetary implications and emphasizes the importance of ensuring that the Committee is represented at all stages of the deliberations of the Assembly at which documents that contain financial or budgetary implications are considered;

156. Emphasizes the importance of endowing the Court with the necessary financial resources, and urges all States Parties to the Rome Statute to transfer their assessed contributions in full and by the deadline for contributions or, in the event of pre-existing arrears, immediately, in accordance with article 115 of the Rome Statute, rule 105.1 of the Financial Regulations and Rules, and other relevant decisions taken by the Assembly;

157. Calls upon States, international organizations, individuals, corporations and other entities to contribute voluntarily to the Court and expresses its appreciation to those that have done so;

T. Review Conference

158. Recalls that at the successful first Review Conference of the Rome Statute, held in Kampala, Uganda, from 31 May to 11 June 2010, States Parties adopted amendments to the Rome Statute, in accordance with article 5, paragraph 2, of the Rome Statute to define the crime of aggression and to establish conditions under which the Court could exercise jurisdiction with respect to that crime<sup>41</sup> and adopted amendments to the Rome Statute to expand the jurisdiction of the Court to three additional war crimes when committed in armed conflicts not of an international character;<sup>42</sup>

159. Calls upon all States Parties to consider ratifying or accepting these amendments, noting that they shall enter into force in accordance with article 121, paragraph 5, of the Rome Statute, notes with appreciation the recent ratifications of the amendments<sup>43</sup> and notes that two States Parties have lodged declarations in accordance with article 15 bis, paragraph 4, of the Rome Statute;<sup>44</sup>

160. Welcomes the activation of the Court's jurisdiction over the crime of aggression as of 17 July 2018, as decided by consensus by the Assembly in its resolution ICC-ASP/16/Res.5, marking the first time that a permanent international court has the authority to hold individuals accountable in respect of this crime, thereby completing the achievements of the Rome and Kampala Conferences of 1998 and 2010;

161. Recalls the decision taken by the first Review Conference to review the amendments on the crime of aggression seven years after the beginning of the Court's exercise of jurisdiction<sup>45</sup> and the decision by the Assembly that this review is to be prepared ahead of 17 July 2025;<sup>46</sup>

162. Takes note of the report of the focal point on the preparations for the review of the amendments on the crime of aggression;<sup>47</sup>

163. Invites the Chair of the Working Group of Amendments to convene regular meetings of the Working Group starting early in 2025 to facilitate discussions on the Kampala amendments on the crime of aggression in preparation of the Special Session of the Assembly from 7 – 9 July 2025, in accordance with the decision to Review the Kampala amendments;

164. Invites States Parties to resume the discussions on the issue of peace and justice that arose during the stock-taking exercise held at the Review Conference;

165. Recalls with appreciation pledges of increased assistance to the Court made by thirty-five States Parties, one observer State, and one regional organization, calls upon these States and the regional organization to ensure the swift implementation of these pledges and also calls upon States and regional organizations to submit additional pledges and to report
