I. Introduction

1. Article 112, paragraph (2) (f), of the Rome Statute provides that “the Assembly shall consider pursuant to article 87, paragraphs 5 and 7, any question relating to non-cooperation.”

2. At its tenth session, the Assembly of States Parties (“the Assembly”) adopted the Assembly procedures relating to non-cooperation (“the Procedures”).¹ At its subsequent sessions the Assembly approved mandates with regard to non-cooperation and requested the Bureau to submit reports on the implementation of the Procedures. At its seventeenth session, the Assembly adopted the revised Procedures and approved mandates accordingly with its request for the Bureau to submit reports on the implementation of the revised Procedures.² The present report is submitted pursuant to the mandate approved at the twenty-third session of the Assembly.³

3. In operative paragraph 31 of resolution ICC-ASP/23/Res.1, the Assembly also “[r]ecall[ed] the Procedures relating to non-cooperation adopted by the Assembly in ICC-ASP/10/Res.5 and revised by the Assembly in resolution ICC-ASP/17/Res.5, recognize[d] with concern the negative impact that the non-execution of Court requests continue[d] to have on the ability of the Court to execute its mandate, and [took] note of the past decisions of the Court on non-cooperation”.⁴

4. In operative paragraph 32 of resolution ICC-ASP/23/Res.1, the Assembly also “[r]ecall[ed] the Toolkit for the implementation of the informal dimension of the Assembly procedures relating to non-cooperation, which [had been] revised as annex III to ICC-ASP/17/31 and encourage[d] States Parties to make use of it as they [saw] fit in order to improve the implementation of the Assembly procedures relating to non-cooperation”.⁵

5. In operative paragraph 33 of resolution ICC-ASP/23/Res.1, the Assembly also “[took] note of the report of the Bureau on non-cooperation, welcome[d] the efforts of the President of the Assembly in implementing the Assembly procedures relating to non-cooperation, recall[ed] that the President serves ex officio as focal point for his or her region, and call[ed] upon all stakeholders, at all levels, to continue assisting the President of the Assembly, including when accomplishing his or her task with the support of the regional focal points for non-cooperation”.⁶

6. In operative paragraph 34 of resolution ICC-ASP/23/Res.1, the Assembly “[took] note of the 24 October 2024 finding on the non-compliance by Mongolia and the 29 November 2024 decision of the Pre-Trial Chamber II in the situation in Ukraine”.⁷

7. In operative paragraph 35 of resolution ICC-ASP/23/Res.1, the Assembly “[urged] States Parties to engage in effective consultations with the Court in accordance with article 97 of the Rome Statute”.⁸

8. In operative paragraph 36 of resolution ICC-ASP/23/Res.1, the Assembly “[decided] to include on the agenda of future sessions of the Assembly the consideration of non-cooperation issues arising during the intersessional period”.⁹

9. In operative paragraph 37 of resolution ICC-ASP/23/Res.1, the Assembly also “[r]ecall[ed] the role of the Assembly of States Parties and the Security Council with respect to non-cooperation as provided for by articles 87, paragraph 5, and 87, paragraph 7, of the Rome Statute, and welcome[d] the efforts of States Parties to strengthen the relationship between the Court and the Council”.¹⁰

10. In operative paragraph 38 of resolution ICC-ASP/23/Res.1, the Assembly also “[c]all[ed] upon States Parties to continue their efforts to ensure that the Security Council addresses the communications received from the Court on non-cooperation pursuant to the Rome Statute, encourage[d] the President of the Assembly and the Bureau to continue consulting with the Security Council and also encourage[d] both the Assembly and the Security Council to strengthen their mutual engagement on this matter”.¹¹

11. In operative paragraph 39 of resolution ICC-ASP/23/Res.1, the Assembly “encourage[d] the authorities in Sudan to effectively cooperate with the Court in accordance with Security Council resolution 1593 (2005), while expressing continued concern about the military conflict that erupted in Sudan on 15 April 2023”.¹²

12. In operative paragraph 40 of resolution ICC-ASP/23/Res.1, the Assembly further “not[ed] the past orders of the Pre-Trial Chamber to the Registrar concerning action to be taken in case of information relating to the travel of suspects, urge[d] States to share with the focal points on non-cooperation any information concerning potential or confirmed travel of persons against whom an arrest warrant [had been] issued”.¹³

13. At its twenty-third session, the Assembly “request[ed] the President of the Assembly to continue to engage actively and constructively with all relevant stakeholders, in accordance with the Assembly procedures relating to non-cooperation, both to prevent instances of non-cooperation and to follow up on any matter of non-cooperation referred by the Court to the Assembly”.¹⁴ The Assembly also “request[ed] that any information concerning potential or confirmed travel of persons against whom an arrest warrant [had] been issued be promptly shared with the Court by the focal points on non-cooperation”.¹⁵ The Assembly further “request[ed] the Bureau to continue to actively engage throughout the intersessional period with all relevant stakeholders to continue to ensure effective implementation of the Assembly procedures relating to non-cooperation and to submit a report on its activities to the Assembly at its twenty-fourth session”.¹⁶

14. Paragraph 17 of the Procedures on non-cooperation calls for the appointment of four or, if so, requested by the President of the Assembly, five focal points from among all States Parties, on the basis of equitable geographical representation; the President serves ex officio as focal point for her own region.¹⁷

15. At its second meeting on 15 January 2025, the Bureau adopted the Allocation of Mandates, assigning the mandate on non-cooperation to the ad country focal points, based in New York¹⁸. The Bureau confirmed that the focal points appointed in 2024 remain under this mandate, namely Mexico, Sierra Leone and Vanuatu, appointed at the Bureau meeting held on 6 March 2024¹⁹, and Poland, appointed at the Bureau meeting held on 1 May 2024²⁰. The President of the Assembly, Ms Päivi Kaukoranta of Finland, continues to serve ex officio as focal point for her region. The present report covers activities during the inter-sessional period between the twenty-third and twenty-fourth sessions of the Assembly.

16. The focal points on non-cooperation recall the provisions of the Rome Statute, the Declaration on Cooperation (RC/Dec.2) agreed by States Parties at the Review Conference in Kampala and previous resolutions and declarations of the Assembly of States Parties with regard to cooperation and reiterate the obligation of States Parties to cooperate with the Court. The focal points also recall that the Rome Statute, in article 112(2)(f), provides that the Assembly shall consider any question relating to non-cooperation, and pursuant to article 112(2)(g), entrusts the Assembly to “[p]erform any other function consistent with this Statute or the Rules of Procedure and Evidence”.

17. The focal points on non-cooperation also recall the 2013 UN guidance on contacts with persons who are subject to arrest warrants or summons to appear issued by the International Criminal Court,²¹ as well as the Assembly resolution ICC-ASP/23/Res.5, which “urges States Parties to avoid contact with persons subject to a warrant of arrest issued by the Court, unless such contact is deemed essential by the State Parties, welcomes the efforts of States and international and regional organizations in this regard, and acknowledges that States Parties may, on a voluntary basis, advise the Court of their own contacts with persons subject to a warrant of arrest made as a result of such an assessment”.²²

18. The focal points on non-cooperation also recall that recommendations 284, 286 and 289 of the Independent Expert Review (IER) were allocated to the non-cooperation focal points, in conjunction with the cooperation facilitation (recommendations 284 and 289), the Office of the Prosecutor (recommendations 286 and 289) and the Registry (recommendation 289). Following the positive assessment and implementation of the recommendations, the focal points for non-cooperation look forward to continuing on-going efforts to implement recommendations R284, R286 and R289 in cooperation with other relevant stakeholders.

II. Court proceedings and findings: States Parties

19. Pursuant to article 86 of the Rome Statute, States Parties shall, in accordance with the provisions of the Statute, cooperate fully with the Court in its investigation and prosecution of crimes within the jurisdiction of the Court. Pursuant to article 89, States Parties are obliged to execute the Court’s pending orders for the arrest and surrender of a person.

20. In relation to the Situation in Ukraine, and Pre-Trial Chamber II Finding under article 87(7) of the Rome Statute on the non-compliance by Mongolia, on 24 October 2024²³, Mongolia submitted, on 2 December 2024, a request for reconsideration of the “Decision on Mongolia’s requests for leave to appeal, temporary stay of the proceedings, and related matters”²⁴ and a request for partial reconsideration of the decision on the application for the disqualification of Judges.²⁵ These requests were subsequently rejected: on 10 March 2025, the Plenary of Judges dismissed the request for partial reconsideration²⁶, and on 18 March 2025, Pre-Trial Chamber II rejected the request for reconsideration of the decision on leave to appeal, temporary stay, and related matters, finding no grounds to depart from its prior rulings²⁷.

21. In relation to the Situation in the State of Palestine, during the period covered by this report Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel visited Hungary, a State Party to the Statute, from 3 to 6 April 2025.

22. The Pre-Trial Chamber I was seized, under article 87(7) of the Rome Statute, with the question of whether Hungary had failed to comply with the Court’s request for arrest and surrender of Benjamin Netanyahu, contrary to the Provisions of the Statute.

23. On 24 July 2025, Pre-Trial Chamber I issued a “Finding under article 87(7) of the Rome Statute on the non-compliance by Hungary with the request by the Court to cooperate in the arrest and surrender of Benjamin Netanyahu and referral to the Assembly of States Parties”.

24. In accordance with the Pre-Trial Chamber I’s Finding under article 87(7) of the Rome Statute on the non-compliance by Hungary, and pursuant to article 87(7) of the Rome Statute and regulation 109(4) of the Regulations of the Court, the Presidency of the Court transmitted the decision and referred the matter to the Assembly of States Parties on 24 July 2025.

25. In relation to the Situation in Libya, on 18 January 2025, Pre-Trial Chamber I issued a Warrant of Arrest for Osama Elmasry Njeem for alleged crimes against humanity and war crimes²⁸. On 19 January 2025, Mr Njeem was arrested by the Italian authorities, pursuant to that warrant. On 21 January 2025, Mr Njeem was released and expelled to the Libyan Arab Republic, without surrender to the Court.

26. The Pre-Trial Chamber I was seized, under article 87(7) of the Rome Statute, with the question of whether Italy had failed to comply with the Court's request for arrest and surrender of Osama Elmasry Njeem, contrary to the Provisions of the Statute.

27. On 17 October 2025, Pre-Trial Chamber I issued a "Decision on Italy's non-compliance with a request for cooperation"²⁹. The Chamber, by majority, deferred its determination as to whether the matter of Italy's non-compliance with the request for arrest and surrender of Mr Njeem should be referred to the Assembly of States Parties or to the United Nations Security Council. The Chamber invited Italy to provide information on any domestic proceedings relevant to the case, and an indication of the impact that these proceedings could have on Italy's future cooperation with the Court in the execution of cooperation requests for the arrest and surrender of suspects, by 31 October 2025. The Decision was accompanied by a Partially Dissenting Opinion of Judge María del Socorro Flores Liera³⁰. Italy's response to the Pre-Trial Chamber's invitation to provide information on relevant domestic proceedings was submitted on 31 October 2025.³¹

III. Court proceedings and findings: States under an obligation to cooperate with the Court pursuant to a decision of the United Nations Security Council

28. Pursuant to Security Council resolution 1593 (2005), "the Government of Sudan and all other parties to the conflict in Darfur, shall cooperate fully with and provide any necessary assistance to the Court and the Prosecutor."³²

29. Pursuant to Security Council resolution 1970 (2011), the Libyan authorities shall cooperate fully with and provide any necessary assistance to the Court and the Prosecutor.

30. No Court proceedings concerning non-cooperation took place in relation to States under an obligation to cooperate with the Court pursuant to a decision of the United Nations Security Council.

IV. Court proceedings and findings: States not Parties

31. While States not party to the Rome Statute have no obligation under it, pursuant to Security Council resolutions 1593 (2005) and 1970 (2011), all States and concerned regional and other international organizations are urged to fully cooperate with the Court and the Prosecutor.

32. No Court proceedings concerning non-cooperation took place regarding States not Parties to the Statute.

V. Actions undertaken by the President of the Assembly and the Bureau, States Parties and other stakeholders

33. Throughout the year, the President of the Assembly recalled the importance for States to spare no effort in executing the arrest warrants issued by the Court, and the importance of avoiding non-essential contacts.

34. Prior to Prime Minister Netanyahu's visit to Hungary, the President of the Assembly of States Parties conveyed a letter, dated 31 March 2025, to the Minister of Foreign Affairs and Trade of Hungary, in accordance with the Assembly procedures relating to non-cooperation. The letter was published once Prime Minister Netanyahu's visit had commenced³³.

35. Furthermore, ahead of the visit, the focal points on non-cooperation informed States Parties of the intended visit, reminded of the toolkit for the implementation of the informal dimension of the Assembly procedures relating to non-cooperation, and encouraged States Parties to make use of the toolkit for any appropriate action.

36. On 2 April 2024, the Bureau took note of the decisions of the Pre-Trial Chamber dated 10 March and 18 March 2025 regarding a request from Mongolia, of which the President of the Court, Judge Tomoko Akane had informed the President of the Assembly.

37. On 3 September 2025, the Bureau considered the 24 July 2025 decision of Pre-Trial Chamber I regarding Hungary's non-cooperation in the situation in the State of Palestine. Pursuant to paragraph 14(c) of the Assembly procedures relating to non-cooperation, a representative of Hungary attended to present his government's view, reiterating Hungary's position submitted to Pre-Trial Chamber I. The Bureau took note of Hungary's statement and that the topic of non-cooperation would be addressed at the twenty-fourth session of the Assembly.³⁴

38. From 8 to 10 October, President Vladimir Putin of Russian Federation visited Tajikistan. The focal points on non-cooperation were activated, including the good offices of the President of the Assembly, in line with the informal Assembly procedures relating to non-cooperation.

39. In advance of President Putin's visit, the President of the Assembly of States Parties conveyed a letter, dated 7 October 2025, to the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Tajikistan, noting the obligations of States Parties under articles 86 and 89(1) of the Rome Statute to cooperate fully with the Court and to comply with requests from the Court for arrest and surrender. The letter was published once President Putin's visit to Tajikistan had commenced.³⁵

40. In the context of the UN General Assembly High-Level Week, on 26 September 2025, the focal points on non-cooperation issued a message recalling Assembly resolution ICC-ASP/23/Res.5, which urges States Parties to avoid contact with persons subject to a warrant of arrest issued by the Court, unless such contact is deemed essential by the State Party³⁶.

41. Regarding the activities of the Non-Cooperation Focal Points, the focal points continue to monitor and share information regarding specific instances of potential non-cooperation. The Focal Points continue to meet informally, including with different stakeholders.

VI. The United Nations Security Council

42. During the reporting period, the Prosecutor presented the fortieth and forty-first reports to the Security Council pursuant to resolution 1593 (2005), on 27 January 2025 and 10 July 2025. The Prosecutor appealed to the Security Council to take concrete action to support justice and accountability by enforcing ICC arrest warrants, particularly the transfer of Ahmed Harun, strengthening cooperation with the Court, and fulfilling the obligations and commitments under Resolution 1593 to end the ongoing cycle of violence and impunity.³⁷ The Prosecutor further appealed to the Council to give increased attention to the Darfur situation and to support justice and accountability by using all powers available to help the

ICC implement Resolution 1593, including facilitating cooperation, and aiding the arrest and surrender of suspects.³⁸

43. The Prosecutor presented the twenty-ninth report to the to the Security Council pursuant to 1970 (2011) on 15 May 2025, with reference to significant progress in Libya investigations, including the transition of multiple cases into the judicial phase, the issuance and unsealing of an arrest warrant for Osama Elmasry Njeem, and continued evidence collection across four lines of inquiry, while also noting challenges such as limited Libyan cooperation, the release of Njeem in Italy despite an ICC warrant, and ongoing security and resource constraints. The Prosecutor reiterated calls for full support from the Council, including assistance in ensuring the arrest and surrender of ICC suspects, enhanced cooperation from State and international bodies, and action on non-compliance under article 87 (7) of the Rome Statute.³⁹

VII. Consultations on non-cooperation

44. Pursuant to the mandate of the Bureau, the focal points on non-cooperation engaged in consultations with relevant stakeholders in order to ensure effective implementation of the Procedures and to submit a report on its activities to the Assembly at its twenty-fourth session.

45. The focal points held a strategic planning meeting on 10 March 2025, to discuss and agree on the programme of work for 2025 and a meeting on 3 September 2025 to discuss issues pertaining to their mandate. The focal points met with the President of the Assembly on 29 April 2025 to discuss the work of the facilitation during the inter-sessional period. The focal points also participated virtually and provided a briefing in the meeting of the Cooperation facilitation on 3 July 2025, and provided updates on their mandate and activities to the New York Working Group on 1 April, 10 June, 8 September and 21 October 2025. A plenary meeting dedicated to non-cooperation will be held on 3 December 2025, with a focus on prevention of non-compliance through article 97 consultations.

VIII. Recommendations

46. The focal points recommend that the Assembly take note of the present report and adopt the proposed language concerning mandates on non-cooperation that is contained in annex I to this report.

47. The focal points consider that they and the President of the Assembly should continue to engage in any necessary measures that ensure knowledge, understanding and implementation of measures by States Parties and the Assembly, to prevent instances of non-cooperation.

48. With respect to the application of the Procedures on non-cooperation, the Assembly should request the Bureau, including the President and the focal points, to implement the Procedures consistently.

49. Additionally, during the inter-sessional period, the focal points will continue consultations on means to strengthen the application of the Procedures and the Toolkit, including through possible updates to their content.

50. The focal points should continue to monitor judicial developments as well as travels of persons against whom warrants of arrest have been issued with the assistance of States Parties, and promptly inform the Court of any relevant information.

51. The focal points consider that the Court should continue to provide up-to-date information to the Assembly on judicial developments related to non-cooperation via the President and the focal points.

³⁸ See: Forty-first Report of the Prosecutor of the International Criminal Court to the United Nations Security Council pursuant to UNSCR 1593 (2005), available at Forty-first report of the Prosecutor of the International Criminal Court to the United Nations Security Council pursuant to Resolution 1593 (2005) | International Criminal Court
