Twenty-fifth session

The Hague, 30 November – 7 December 2026

Annotated list of items included in the provisional agenda

Note by the Secretariat

The following annotated list of the items contained in the provisional agenda for the twenty-fifth session of the Assembly of States Parties ("the Assembly") to the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court (ICC-ASP/25/1) has been prepared to assist the Assembly in its consideration of issues before it at its twenty-fifth session, which will be convened in The Hague on Monday, 30 November 2026 at 10 a.m. The status of the documentation reflected herein is current as at 16 November 2026.

1. Opening of the session by the President

In accordance with article 112, paragraph 6, of the Rome Statute, the Assembly meets once a year in regular session. At the 9th meeting of the twenty-fourth session, on 5 December 2025, the Assembly decided to hold its twenty-fifth session in New York from 7 to 17 December 2026. The Bureau subsequently took a decision, following consultation with States Parties, that the twenty-fifth session would be held in The Hague from 30 November to 7 December 2026.

2. Silent prayer or meditation

Pursuant to rule 43 of the Rules of Procedure of the Assembly of States Parties, immediately after the opening of the first plenary meeting and immediately preceding the closing of the final plenary meeting, the President shall invite the representatives to observe one minute of silence dedicated to prayer or meditation.

3. Adoption of the agenda

Rules 10 to 13 and 18 to 22 of the Rules of Procedure concerning the agenda are applicable to regular sessions.

In accordance with rules 10 and 11 of the Rules of Procedure, the provisional agenda for the twenty-fifth session was issued on 12 March 2026. In accordance with rule 19 of the Rules of Procedure, the agenda shall be submitted to the Assembly for approval as soon as possible after the opening of the session.

5. Election of the President for the twenty-sixth to twenty-eighth sessions of the Assembly

In accordance with article 112, paragraphs 3 (a) and (b), of the Rome Statute, the Assembly shall have a Bureau consisting of a President, two Vice-Presidents and 18 members elected by the Assembly for three-year terms. Furthermore, the Bureau shall have a representative character, taking account, in particular, equitable geographical distribution and the adequate representation of the principal legal systems of the world.

In accordance with rule 29 of the Rules of Procedure of the Assembly of States Parties,[2] "[s]hould the regular session of the Assembly marking the end of the Bureau's term of office be held later in the calendar year than the previous regular session, the Bureau shall continue to serve until the conclusion of that session. Unless the Assembly decides otherwise, the Assembly shall elect a new composition of the Bureau at the regular session marking the end of the term of office of the Bureau. The Bureau so elected shall assume its functions only at the conclusion of the session at which it is elected and shall hold office until the end of its term. The Bureau shall assist the Assembly in the discharge of its responsibilities."

[1] Para. 10 (j): "(j) also decides to consider the Composition of the Bureau as its first point on its agenda for the twenty-fifth session of the Assembly, taking into consideration the Reports on the Composition of the Bureau and its Annexes, as well as other proposals, and with a view of taking an action, and requests that the Bureau will adopt the report well in advance;".

[2] As amended by resolution ICC-ASP/12/Res.8, annex III.

At its twenty-fifth session, the Assembly will elect the President for the twenty-sixth to twenty-eighth sessions of the Assembly.

6. Election of two Vice-Presidents and eighteen members of the Bureau for the twenty-sixth to twenty-eighth sessions of the Assembly

At its twenty-fifth session, the Assembly, pursuant to article 112 of the Rome Statute and rule 29 of its Rules of Procedure, as well as any decision on the composition of the Bureau pursuant to resolution ICC-ASP/24/Res.6, annex I, will elect the Bureau for the twenty-sixth to twenty-eighth sessions of the Assembly. It will also elect two Vice-Presidents from among the Bureau members for the same term.

7. States in arrears

According to article 112, paragraph 8, of the Rome Statute, "A State Party which is in arrears in the payment of its financial contributions towards the costs of the Court shall have no vote in the Assembly and in the Bureau if the amount of its arrears equals or exceeds the amount of the contributions due from it for the preceding two full years. The Assembly may, nevertheless, permit such a State Party to vote in the Assembly and in the Bureau if it is satisfied that the failure to pay is due to conditions beyond the control of the State Party."

At its twenty-fourth session, the Assembly decided that the Bureau, through the President of the Assembly, the Coordinator of the working group and the facilitator, should continue to monitor the status of payments received throughout the financial year of the Court and, as appropriate, continue to engage in dialogue with States Parties that have outstanding contributions or are in arrears, and via the annual facilitation on the topic of arrears, report thereon to the Assembly at its twenty-fifth session.[3]

Also at its twenty-fourth session, the Assembly adopted a resolution on the procedure and criteria for waivers of the loss of voting rights (resolution ICC-ASP/24/Res.3). Pursuant to the resolution, and on the basis of a recommendation from the Bureau, the Assembly will take a decision on any requests for waivers of the loss of voting rights.

8. Credentials of representatives of States at the twenty-fifth session

a) Appointment of the Credentials Committee

Rule 25 of the Rules of Procedure of the Assembly of States Parties provides that a Credentials Committee shall be appointed at the beginning of each session. It shall consist of representatives of nine States Parties, which shall be appointed by the Assembly on the proposal of the President.

b) Report of the Credentials Committee

Representation and credentials are regulated by rules 23 to 28 of the Rules of Procedure. In accordance with rule 24, the credentials of representatives of States Parties and the names of alternates and advisers shall be submitted to the Secretariat if possible not later than 24 hours after the opening of the session. The credentials shall be issued by the Head of State or Government or by the Minister for Foreign Affairs or by a person authorized by either of them.

Under rule 25, a Credentials Committee, consisting of representatives of nine States Parties to be appointed at the beginning of each session by the Assembly on the proposal of

14. Election of six judges

In accordance with paragraph 3 of resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6,[5] the nomination period for the election of judges to be elected at the twenty-fifth session ran from 5 January to 29 March 2026.

At the close of the nomination period, not all minimum nomination requirements had been met. In accordance with paragraph 11 of resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6, the President of the Assembly extended the nomination period three times, for two weeks each, until 12 April, 26 April and 10 May 2026.

Under the terms of article 36 of the Rome Statute, six judges will be elected to serve for a term of nine years. According to paragraphs 3 and 5, the judges are to be nominated from among persons of high moral character, impartiality and integrity who possess the qualifications required in their respective State for appointment to the highest judicial offices. Every candidate for election to the Court should also have an excellent knowledge of and be fluent in at least one of the working languages of the Court. In addition, two lists of candidates have been established:

(a) List A: Candidates having established competence in criminal law and procedure, and the necessary relevant experience, whether as judge, prosecutor, advocate or in other similar capacity, in criminal proceedings;

(b) List B: Candidates having established competence in relevant areas of international law such as international humanitarian law and the law of human rights, and

15. Election of members of the Committee on Budget and Finance

By resolution ICC-ASP/1/Res.4, the Assembly established a Committee on Budget and Finance composed of 12 members of different nationalities who shall be experts of recognized standing and experience in financial matters at the international level from States Parties. They shall be elected by the Assembly for a term of office of three years on the basis of equitable geographical distribution.

By resolution ICC-ASP/22/Res.8, the Assembly decided to increase the total number of seats in the Committee to seventeen seats. It further decided that the distribution of seats among the five regional groups would, accordingly, be as follows: African States, four seats; Asia-Pacific States, three seats; Eastern European States, three seats; Group of Latin American and Caribbean States, three seats; and Western European and other States group, four seats.

On 11 March 2026, the Bureau of the Assembly of States Parties decided that the election of six members of the Committee on Budget and Finance would take place at the twenty-fifth session of the Assembly. Pursuant to the decision of the Bureau, the nomination period for the candidates for six seats on the Committee on Budget and Finance ran from 27 April to 19 July 2026 (Central European Time).

The six members whose terms of office will end on 31 December 2026 are from the following regional groups:

(a) African States - one seat;

(b) Asia-Pacific States- two seats;

(c) Eastern European States - one seat;

(d) Latin American and Caribbean States - one seat; and

(e) Western European and other States - one seat.

At the close of the nomination period on 19 July 2026, since the number of candidates did not correspond to the number of vacant seats, the President of the Assembly, pursuant to ICC-ASP/1/Res.5, paragraph 4, extended the nomination period three times, for two weeks each, until 2 August, 16 August and 30 August 2026.

At the close of the extended nomination period, six nominations had been received for the six seats.

At its meeting on 2 September 2026, the Bureau recommended that the Assembly dispense with the secret ballot[6] and elect by acclamation the six candidates that corresponded to the vacant seats in the African group; the Asia-Pacific group; the Eastern European group; the Group of Latin American and Caribbean States; and the Western European and other States group.

The members elected to the regular vacancies will be elected for three-year terms commencing on 1 January 2027 and ending on 31 December 2029.

The Bureau took note that no candidates had been nominated for the outstanding vacancy allocated to the Eastern European Group according to the expansion of the Committee's membership by resolution ICC-ASP/22/Res.8.[7] The vacancy would therefore remain unfilled, and the Bureau would consider opening a new nomination period in conjunction with other elections in 2027.

16. Election of two members of the Board of Directors of the Trust Fund for Victims

By resolution ICC-ASP/1/Res.6, the Assembly established a Trust Fund for the benefit of victims of crimes within the jurisdiction of the Court, and of the families of such victims, as well as a Board of Directors of the Trust Fund. The relevant resolutions for the nomination and election of the members of the Board are ICC-ASP/1/Res.6 (as amended by resolutions ICC-ASP/4/Res.5 and ICC-ASP/4/Res.7) and ICC-ASP/1/Res.7.

Pursuant to paragraph 2 of the annex to resolution ICC-ASP/1/Res.6, as amended by ICC-ASP/20/Res.5, annex II, the Board shall have five members, elected for a term of four years who may be re-elected once, with two of the members elected at the first election after the adoption of resolution ICC-ASP/20/Res.5[8] selected by lot to serve for a term of two years. Members serve in an individual capacity on a pro bono basis and may be re-elected once. However, a member elected to fill a vacancy who starts to serve during the last twelve months of the predecessor's term may be re-elected twice.

The two members selected by lot to serve for a term of two years whose term of office will expire on 5 December 2026 are from the following regional groups:

- one from the African States group; and
- one from the Group of Latin American and Caribbean States.

On 11 March 2026, the Bureau decided that the election of two members of the Board of Directors of the Trust Fund for Victims would be held during the twenty-fifth session of the Assembly and that the nomination period would run from 27 April to 19 July 2026 (Central European Time).

At the close of the nomination period on 19 July 2026, four candidatures had been submitted by the African States group and one by the Group of Latin American and Caribbean States.

At its meeting on 2 September 2026, the Bureau recommended that the Assembly dispense with a secret ballot and elect by acclamation the candidate from the Group of Latin American and Caribbean States. As regards the seat allocated to the African States group, the Bureau requested the nominating States to continue consultations in order to identify one candidate for election.

17. Consideration and adoption of the budget for the twenty-fifth financial year

In accordance with article 112, paragraph 2(d), of the Rome Statute, the Assembly shall consider and decide on the budget of the Court.

Regulation 3 of the Financial Regulations and Rules of the Court provides that the Registrar shall prepare the proposed programme budget for each financial period and submit it to the States Parties as well as to the Committee on Budget and Finance for consideration. The Committee shall make the relevant recommendations to the Assembly.

At its third session, the Assembly endorsed the recommendation of the Committee that the Court should include in future performance reports data on financial performance and results achieved rather than outputs. This information should be submitted annually to the Assembly through the Committee either in the draft programme budget or in a separate performance report.[9]
