Her Excellency

Dr. Silvia Fernández de Gurmendi

President of the Assembly of States Parties to the Rome Statute

The Hague

2/21/2023

Excellency,

Dear Dr. Fernández de Gurmendi,

The German group in the Permanent Court of Arbitration has been notified that the Assembly of States Parties to the Rome Statute will hold an election for the International Criminal Court in order to fill upcoming vacancies in the body of judges of the ICC.

The members of the German group in the Permanent Court of Arbitration have with due regards to Articles 2 and 5 para. 2 of the Statute of the International Court of Justice (in combination with Document ICC-ASP/22/SP/01 on the election of judges) thoroughly considered this nomination.

As spokesperson of the German group, i.e. Professors Dr. Dr. Doris König, M.C.L., Dr. Andreas Zimmermann, LL.M., Dr. Anne Peters and myself, I have the honor to inform you that the German group nominates for election the German candidate:

Dr. Ute Hohoff, Judge at the Federal Supreme Court of Germany, Karlsruhe

With the expression of my highest consideration, I am faithfully yours,

Prof. Dr. Stefan Oeter
