Sixth session

New York

30 November to 14 December 2007

Election of judges to fill three judicial vacancies of the International Criminal Court

Note by the Secretariat

1. The election of three judges of the International Criminal Court will take place during the sixth session of the Assembly of States Parties, to be held in New York from 30 November to 14 December 2007.

2. Under the terms of article 36 of the Rome Statute, the judges will be elected to fill vacancies arising from the resignation on 10 December 2006 of judge Maureen Harding Clark (Ireland), the resignation of judge Karl T. Hudson-Phillips (Trinidad and Tobago), effective as of 30 September 2007, and the resignation of judge Claude Jorda (France), effective as of 12 August 2007.

3. According to article 36, paragraph 4, States Parties were required to make nominations either by the procedure for the nomination of candidates for appointment to the highest judicial offices in the State in question, or by the procedure provided for the nomination of candidates for the International Court of Justice in the Statute of that Court. In addition, nominations were to be accompanied by a statement in the necessary detail specifying how the candidate fulfils the requirements laid down in paragraph 3 of article 36.

4. According to article 36, paragraphs 3 and 5, the judges were to be nominated from among persons of high moral character, impartiality and integrity who possess the qualifications required in their respective States for appointment to the highest judicial offices. Every candidate for election to the Court should also have an excellent knowledge of and be fluent in at least one of the working languages of the Court. In addition, two lists of candidates have been established (see annex II to the present note):

List A - Candidates having established competence in criminal law and procedure, and the necessary relevant experience, whether as judge, prosecutor, advocate or in other similar capacity, in criminal proceedings;

List B - Candidates having established competence in relevant areas of international law such as international humanitarian law and the law of human rights, and extensive experience in a professional legal capacity which is of relevance to the judicial work of the Court.

For the purposes of this election to the Court, at least two judges will be elected from list A.

5. Article 36, paragraph 6, requires that the judges be elected by secret ballot at a meeting of the Assembly of States Parties convened for that purpose under article 112, and that the persons elected to the Court shall be the three candidates who obtain the highest number of votes and a two-thirds majority of the States Parties present and voting. In the event that a sufficient number of judges is not elected on the first ballot, successive ballots will be held until the remaining places have been filled, in accordance with the provisions of resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6.

6. Under the terms of article 36, paragraphs 7 and 8, no two judges may be nationals of the same State, and the States Parties shall, in the selection of judges, take into account the need, within the membership of the Court, for the representation of the principal legal systems of the world; equitable geographical representation; and a fair representation of female and male judges. In addition, States Parties are required to take into account the need to include judges with legal expertise on specific issues, including, but not limited to, violence against women or children.

7. The Assembly of States Parties, at the 6th plenary meeting of its third session, on 10 September 2004, adopted resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6 relating to the procedure for the nomination and election of the judges of the International Criminal Court. Furthermore, the Assembly of States Parties, at the 9th plenary meeting of its resumed fifth session, on 1 February 2007, adopted resolution ICC-ASP/5/Res.5 containing an amendment to operative paragraph 27 of resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6.

In accordance with paragraph 13 of that resolution, the nomination period was opened on 1 June 2007, by a decision of the Bureau of the Assembly of States Parties, and closed on 24 August 2007. In accordance with paragraph 3 of the resolution, the nomination period was opened for 12 weeks. By the closing date of 24 August, the Secretariat had received 6 nominations. One nomination was subsequently withdrawn on 20 September 2007.

8. As required by paragraph 8 of the same resolution, the Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties placed the nominations of candidates for judges, together with the accompanying statements referred to in article 36 of the Statute and other supporting documentation, on the Internet web site of the International Criminal Court¹ as soon as possible after they were received.

9. In accordance with paragraph 9 of resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6, a list in English alphabetical order of all persons nominated, with accompanying documents, is contained in annex I to the present note (see ICC-ASP/6/15/Add.1). Three additional lists are provided in further annexes containing the names of the candidates organized according to list A or B (annex II), by regional group (annex III) and by gender (annex IV).

10. The procedure to be followed for the election of judges is laid down in paragraphs 15 to 25 and paragraph 27 of resolution ICC-ASP/3/Res.6.
